THOMAS HUTCHINS OF SALEM
A Genealogy of this large Hutchins family of
New England, New York, Ontario and the West

JOHN HUTCHINS OF HAVERHILL
A genealogy of the oldest New England Hutchins family
Based on Research by Dr. Edwin Colby Byam

The name HUTCHINS is first recorded in Old England as HUCHUN in the year 1276 and from that time it is found in various forms in the records of the husbandman, yeoman, artisan, merchant, clergy and knightly classes.

It is a West County name extensively used in the shires of Devon, Somerset, Cornwall and Dorset. The name is distinct from the HUTCHINSON name which has its origins in Northern England and Scotland. The Hutchinson name is more compatible in spelling with the Scandinavian traditions of eastern England where the suffix "son" is used to expand names, thus in London and the areas in America colonized by people from eastern England the name HUTCHINS is often mistakenly written as HUTCHINSON.

Research for the book "HUGH HUTCHINS OF OLD ENGLAND" has disclosed at least seventy different spellings of the Hutchins name used since 1276. Examples of these names are: Houchin, Houchens, Houchings, Houchins, Houchon, Houchyn, Houtchin, Houtchins, Howchen, Howchynes, Howdyings, Hucchen, Hucchon, Huchen, Hutcheon, Hutchys, Huttchins, Hycchyns, Hytchyn, Huchins, etc., etc. In Cornwall and parts of Devon all the above spellings are used but generally with an "i" instead of a "u" - Hitchins, Hitchings, etc. The forms Hutchins, Hutchings, Hutchens, etc., were beginning to be used by the time of Queen Elizabeth I about the end of the 1500s.

An example of the different spellings of the Hutchins name is demonstrated by a power of attorney signed in 1662 by Mary Hutchins of Westleigh, Devon, concerning her husband Thomas Hutchins who had died in Boston. Although the names on the power of attorney are Hutchins the Boston court records list the name as Houchin and Houchins.

Over time most of the names have been modified to Hutchins-Hutchings-Hutchens except for one large family group from Goochland County, Virginia. They continue to use forms of Houchins, Houchin, etc. This family was very large and they are documented in the book "ROBERT HUTCHINS OF COLONIAL AMERICA." It is often difficult to separate the families for in the same original parish records the family may be recorded at different times as Houchins, Hutchins, Hutchinson, etc. As late as 1853 a biography of a Hutchins mentions that he had a family Bible with the name HUCHINS in gold letters on the front. He tried to use the Huchins spelling but all the records were spelled Hutchins so he had to use that spelling.

In some areas of the South and the Appalachian Mountains the name often was written as Hudgins, Hudgans, etc. An example is John Hudgens (Hutchings) who served in the Revolutionary War from Chatham County, North Carolina. He later moved to Habersham County, Georgia, where he died in 1791 from small-pox. In 1853 his sons named Hudgens tried to get a pension payment (R7515) for their father's service. The pension examiner wrote to one of the sons asking why in Chatham County the name was recorded as Hutchings. The son answered that the name was written Hutchings but pronounced Hudgens and that Hutchings was "the original and primitive mode of the name."

The Hutchins name was first recorded in America in 1611 when it was noted that George Percy, commander at Jamestown, was indebted to Robert Hutchins for 25 shillings. In May 1625 Robert obtained a patent for 100 acres of land on Strawberry Bank below Blunt Point on the James River. The lands of Robert Hutchins, mariner, were adjacent to lands granted in 1628 to Robert Sweete. Master Hutchins was mentioned by Captain John Smith in his last book "The True Adventures and Observations of Captaine John Smith" published just before Smith's death in 1631. Although Captain Smith is credited with saving the original James Town Colony he was only in Virginia from 1607 to 1609. By 1630 he had been away from the colony for twenty-one years and thus he sought up to date information on Virginia from Master Hutchins, ship captain, who visited him in London. The last known record about Robert Hutchins, mariner, was on July 5, 1656, when his lands on Strawberry Bank were noted as being adjacent to lands then granted to Captain Christopher Calthropp.

Land records indicate that Isaac Hutchins who had land in Virginia from at least 1637 to his death about 1656 was the son of Robert, the mariner, and Elizabeth Hutchins who probably married William Coxe was the daughter of Robert. Isaac in his will mentions his son Robert, but records show that this son died without issue.

In New England the earliest Hutchins was recorded in 1630 when Richard Hutchins came in the fleet with the group which founded Boston as the capital of the Massachusetts Bay Colony. The records do not provide details on Richard nor on any of his descendants.

and Saltash in 1562 participated in an adventure of the Plymouth Corporation of Devon, England. This corporation financed the early explorations of Sir Francis Drake, Sir John Hawkins, Sir Walter Raleigh, etc., in establishing trading posts in the New World.

Later when the Massachusetts Bay Company was chartered in 1628/29 by the King of England one of the twenty-six men listed on the charter as founding members was Thomas Hutchins, who was a merchant-taylor of London, England. When copies of the charter were made in 1629 to be sent to Salem each copy was signed by George Hutchins who certified that it was a true copy of the original. Sixty years later when the second Massachusetts Charter was sealed by the King his Keeper of the Great Seal was Sir George Hutchins of Devon.

Old English records indicate that neither Thomas Hutchins of London nor Sir George Hutchins of Devon had male heirs who married and who might have come to America. However, records associated with both of these gentlemen mention other relatives, as for instance Uncle Edward Hutchins noted in the 1647 will of William Hutchins, the brother of Thomas Hutchins of London, and "Parson" Hutchins mentioned as "cozen" in the 1697 will of Sir George. The Uncle Edward was probably the Prebendary of Sarum (Wiltshire) in 1589 and held other important positions in the Church. Edward had a large family and it is possible that some of these nephews of Thomas Hutchins of London came to America to oversee the family interests in the Massachusetts Bay Company or possible interests in the Virginia colony.

PREFACE

Historically the South, and particularly the Carolinas, has one of the largest concentrations of Hutchins-Hutchings-Hutchens families in America exceeded only by the Maine-New Hampshire-Vermont area of New England. Although the area has many Hutchins families there has been little published genealogical information on most of these southern families. Research in the past was often limited to gathering information about possible ancestors who fought in the Revolutionary War. There is, however, a very comprehensive genealogy of the Strangeman Hutchins-Hutchens families of Yadkin County, North Carolina, published by Rita Hineman Townsend.

Part I of "WILLIAM HUTCHINS OF CAROLINA" presents information on many of the Hutchins-Hutchings-Hutchens who lived in the area which was part of the original Carolina colony. When possible data is also provided on their origins prior to moving to Carolina and their location upon leaving the area. The information has been gleaned from records provided by hundreds of people and has been assembled, where possible, into family groups and tied to other groups in other parts of the country.

Part II of this volume is a "SUPPLEMENT TO ROBERT HUTCHINS OF COLONIAL AMERICA" which updates information on Hutchins families outside of the original Carolina colony. Some of the Hutchins of Carolina are known to have moved from Maryland and Virginia to new homes in Carolina and it is probable that others came from the earlier Maryland and Virginia families.

One of the largest Hutchins-Hutchings-Hutchens family groups now living in North Carolina has been documented through the dedicated research of Sue Hutchins Conner. She has explored the various court houses and archives in the area around Rutherford County to glean whatever information was available about any and all Hutchins. She has also traced down the locations of many of the old cemeteries and original homes associated with the Hutchins. Through her efforts most of the earlier Rutherford County Hutchins have been included in this published record.

This volume also includes considerable material collected by David and Wilma Hutchings of Neosho, Missouri, during their extensive search for information on Christopher Hutchings of Pittsylvania County, Virginia. Their work is a continuation of the material prepared by Joyce Oberg, which was included in the book "ROBERT HUTCHINS OF COLONIAL AMERICA."

An appendix contains extracts from the amazing study by Simeon Oliver Coxe, Jr., and his father, Simeon, Sr., on the Coxe-Hutchins-Burton families of the early James Town colony. This study used data from early land grants and patents to identify members of these families.

Many other people have supplied data on family lines and their efforts are herein acknowledged where appropriate. Names have been spelled as they appeared on the old hand written records.

INTRODUCTION

HUTCHINS-HUTCHINGS-HUTCHENS FAMILIES OF CAROLINA

The entire area which now comprises the states of North Carolina, Tennessee, South Carolina, Georgia, Alabama and Mississippi was originally part of the vast area of Carolina claimed by King Charles I of England.

Effective English settlement in Carolina began in 1663 when the area between Virginia and Spanish Florida, from the Atlantic Ocean to the South Seas (Pacific Ocean), was granted by King Charles II to eight proprietors from the nobility of England. The proprietors started governing the area in 1670 when a colony was established in the area around Charles Town, now South Carolina, which included three large counties: Craven to the north, Colleton to the south and Berkely which included Charles Town where all the courts for the area were held.

Although Charles Town was the first settlement by the new proprietors the northern fringe of this area already had a small English population. In 1653 colonists from Virginia had moved into the area of present North Carolina north of the Albemarle Sound to develop a buffer strip to protect the southern part of the coast of Virginia. Officially these Albemarle settlements came under the jurisdiction of the new governor in Charles Town, however, they continued to maintain considerable independence.

In 1691 Albemarle was made a separate Royal Colony, North Carolina, with a deputy governor in charge who until 1711 reported to the governor in Charles Town. In 1729 the southern part of Old Carolina was purchased by the Crown from the proprietors and was designated the Royal Colony of South Carolina. The part of this colony south of the Savannah River and extending to the Mississippi River was made the separate colony of Georgia in 1732.

The initial settlers in the area of Carolina consisted of four general groups: Virginians and other Northerners who moved south gradually extending into the area presently known as North Carolina; planters from England, Barbados and other Caribbean Islands who moved into the Charles Town area with employees, indentured servants and slaves; men and women who were convicted in England of various crimes and sentenced to be transported to America to work for a number of years (usually seven) for planters or to serve in the penal colonies of Georgia; and English men and women who were free or indentured to serve a number of years (often seven) in Carolina for planters or mariners. No records exist to show what happened to these prisoners or indentured servants once they completed their allotted times. Many probably faded into the society and over time these groups merged with each other and with the Scotch and Quaker settlers in the western mountains of North Carolina who came down the great valleys from Maryland or Pennsylvania.

The first Hutchins recorded in the Carolina area was William Hutchins who was mentioned on a landing certificate issued at Charles Town in August 1718. William was sentenced in Middlesex, London, England, in April 1718 for a crime and transported to America in May 1718 on the ship TRYAL. Nothing more is known about William, other than he has the distinction of being the first Hutchins mentioned in the official records of the area.

About the same time that William was sentenced a Richard Hutchins was also sentenced in London, England, for a crime. In April he was sent to the Old Bailey prison and ordered to be transported to America. In August 1718 he was amongst one hundred prisoners delivered from Old Bailey to Captain Robert Staples for transport to Maryland on the ship EAGLE. However, on 24 October 1718 when the ship was headed for Chesapeake Bay about one hundred and five miles east of Cape Henry, Virginia, it was captured by the pirate Richard Worley who recently became engaged in this worthy profession.

Worley started his promising career in March when he and a crew of eight novice buccaneers left New York City in an open boat and went south along the coast to the Delaware River. There they boarded and captured a sloop whereon they abandoned the smaller boat and headed south. Once they captured the EAGLE Worley had two vessels and twenty-five men in his command. He headed for the coast off Charles Town which was the largest commercial center south of Philadelphia and an attraction for pirates. However, the South Carolina governor was then preparing to defend the city from other pirates who were reported to be in the area. Thus they were on the alert and when the EAGLE and its companion ship appeared outside the harbor the governor sent out four armed ships which captured Worley and his crew. On the 24th of November 1718 Worley ended his brief career by being sentenced to be hung.

The prisoners on the EAGLE were landed at Charles Town instead of in Maryland where they had been sentenced. In April 1719 a landing certificate was issued for Richard at Charles Town. The later history of Richard has not been discovered. (Sources: (1) North Carolina Genealogical Journal, volume 9, August 1983, pages 165-167, "A Change of Destination for Some 100" by Ransom McBride; (2) University of South Carolina report reprinted and edited by Manuel Schonhorn - "A General History of Pirates", by Daniel Defoes, 1724; (3) Johns Hopkins Studies in Historical and Political Science, "Carolina Pirates and Colonial Commerce, 1670-1740", by Shirly Carter Hughson, 1894, Johns Hopkins Press.

The early Hutchins settlers of South Carolina were centered around Charles Town while the Hutchins families of North Carolina can be grouped into several general geographical areas. It is probable that most of the Hutchins in each of these areas were related.

The first area outside of Charles Town to be settled by members of the Hutchins families was the county of New Hanover, located in the southern part of the North Carolina coast. Thomas Hutchins, probably born about 1700, was recorded there in the Colonial Census of 1734-1743. It is not known if several Hutchins who later were in New Hanover were descendants of Thomas.

North of New Hanover, on the coast just south of the Virginia Beach-Norfolk area of Virginia, was Currituck County, North Carolina. A Thomas Hutchins, probably born about 1730, was on the militia rolls in 1748 and the 1750s. He had a land patent on 2 May 1761 in Currituck County and his will of 19 May 1798 divided his lands amongst his fourteen children. Although he had a large family there is little known documentation about his descendants. It is possible this family group was a part of the Hutchings family of Princess Anne County, Virginia, which was just to the north. The Princess Anne - Norfolk Hutchings came to that area about 1711 from the island of Bermuda where they were merchants and mariners. The Norfolk family was mainly engaged in shipping and commerce while the Princess Anne families were planters and farmers.

Granville County, North Carolina, in the north near the Virginia counties of Mecklenburg, Halifax and Pittsylvania had a Hutchins family located there in the 1750s. William Huchens, probably born about 1730, was on the taxable list for Granville in 1750 and he was a private in the Granville militia muster of the 8th of October 1754. On the 4th of November 1757 he had a deed recorded in Granville County for 587 acres of land on Owen's Creek at Jos Hutchins corner. No other records have been located about the Granville County Hutchins families.

Just north of Granville was Mecklenburg County, Virginia. Evidently many people in this area had an association with a Hutchins family which must have had a large influence on their lives. Hutchins Burton of Mecklenburg was probably born in the 1720s. He was the grandfather of the Hutchins Gordon Burton born ca 1774 who was governor of North Carolina from 1824 to 1827. Hutchins Ferrell was a merchant of Mecklenburg County, Virginia, and his son Hutchins Ferrell,II, settled in St. Charles, Missouri, in 1832. These families must have had a close association with an unidentified Hutchins family of that area. Robert Hutchins of Dinwiddie County, Virginia, was a land speculator in the Mecklenburg area in the 1750s but no relationship is known between him and these families.

The origins of the above listed families are not known but in the early 1750s a large Hutchins family from New Jersey moved into Anson County, North Carolina, and the Pee Dee River area of both North and South Carolina. They were also in the High Hills of the Santee in central South Carolina. James Hutchins of Monmouth County, New Jersey, married Magdalan Pintard about 1724 in New Jersey and sold his New Jersey lands in 1747. He is recorded in Anson County in 1750 and his descendants were officials in that county for many years.

Another Hutchins family of North Carolina had its origins in the Maryland colony. John Hutchins, Sr., was born in Maryland on the 29th of October 1698. About 1750 he moved from Maryland to Augusta County, Virginia. Around 1760 John, Sr., and John, Jr., moved to old Johnston County where their descendants lived for years in parts of Johnston County which later formed the new counties of Orange, Wake, and Rutherford, also a group lived in that part of Burke which in 1833 became Yancy County.

Old Surry County located south of the Virginia state line in the Piedmont region of North Carolina became the home of two Hutchins family branches in the early 1780s. No relationship is known between these two groups. Part of Old Surry became Stokes County in 1789 and another part became Yadkin County in 1850.

John Hutchins, Sr., born in the 1740s, is first recorded in Old Surry (then Rowan and now Stokes) County about 1769 when he witnessed the marriage of Charity Hutchins. He continued to live there until his death in the 1840s. Many of his descendants are still living in Stokes County although others moved to Waterview, Cumberland County, Kentucky.

The last large Hutchins-Hutchens family to move into North Carolina was the Quaker family of Strangeman Hutchins, born about 1707 in Virginia. In 1786 he moved from Goochland County, Virginia, to Old Surry County, North Carolina, where he had a large family with many descendants still living in the part of Old Surry County which became Yadkin County. Many descendants also moved into Ohio, Iowa, and Illinois.

This book WILLIAM HUTCHINS OF CAROLINA does not duplicate the general information presented in the other books by the author or in the books by Rita Townsend but rather expands this data.

Chapter I

THOMAS HUTCHINS OF OLD JOHNSTON COUNTY NORTH CAROLINA

The large HUTCHINS family which settled in Old Johnston County, North Carolina, can be traced back through Augusta County, Virginia, to the "My Lady's Manor" Hutchins family of Baltimore County, Maryland. Proof of this relationship is shown in land deeds recorded in Orange County, North Carolina, and in Baltimore County, Maryland. In addition the births of three children in Maryland between 1729 and 1734 to John Hutchins are the same names of his three children he recorded in his Wake County, North Carolina, will in 1789.

The movements of this family from Maryland through Augusta County, Virginia, to Wake and Orange Counties are shown in Revolutionary War pension files and land records both in Augusta (Staunton) and Wake counties. The pension files list the names and birth dates of many of the children in Wake and Orange counties.

John Hutchins, Sr., was born in Maryland on the 29th of October 1698. About 1750 he moved from Maryland to Augusta County where he was on a jury. On the 23th of March 1754 John Hutchins, Sr., and his son, John, Jr., were ordered to work on the roads of Augusta County. About 1760 father and son moved to old Johnston County, North Carolina. They and their descendants lived for years in those parts of Johnston County which later formed the new counties of Orange and Wake and also a group lived in that part of Burke which in 1833 became Yancy County.

Court and land records also indicate that Thomas Hutchins, born 8 August 1702, the brother of John, Sr., might also have moved to North Carolina. Thomas had a son Moses, who in 1778 received a land grant in Orange County, North Carolina, and in 1787 sold his grandfather's lands in Baltimore County. About the same time that Moses moved to Orange County a James Hutchins, born 1755, also appeared in Orange County on land adjacent to Moses. It is most probable that Moses and James were brothers, but no records are known to prove the relationship. However, grandchildren of both Moses and James moved to Texas where they were known as cousins.

A history of the "My Lady's Manor" Hutchins family of Baltimore County was prepared by Grover and Elmore Hutchins of Monkton, Maryland. Their history is summarized in the book ROBERT HUTCHINS OF COLONIAL AMERICA. They presented the theory that their Hutchins came from John Hutchins who arrived in Virginia in 1634. There is no proof offered by Grover and Elmore and no known records or histories substantiates this theory. It was also assumed the William Hutchins, who had land along the Corotoman River in Lancaster County, Virginia, moved to Maryland about 1680. However, court and land records in Lancaster County show that William and his wife Elizabeth lived in Virginia until William' death and his orphans are later noted in Lancaster court records. The history also speculated that Nicholas Hutchins, father of Strangeman Hutchins of Dutch Gap, Henrico County, Virginia, was another son of John. There are no records to support this assumption. It is also assumed that the Thomas Hutchins who appeared in Maryland about 1680 was also a son of John of Virginia. The Thomas and William of Maryland are probably brothers but there is no proof that they are related to the William Hutchins of Corotoman or the Nicholas Hutchins, father of Strangeman.

A mystery about the "My Lady's Manor" Hutchins is Thomas Hutchins the father of Moses of Orange County, North Carolina. Moses on 16 December 1788 as "eldest son and heir at law of Thomas Hutchins" sold land in Baltimore County, Maryland, to Benjamin Boyce of Baltimore to confirm a sale of the same land in 1755 by his father Thomas Hutchins to Roger Boyce, father of Benjamin Boyce. Moses signed these papers in 1788 in response to an official notice that Benjamin Boyce put in the State Gazette of North Carolina on 29 November 1787 notifying Thomas Hutchings, who was alleged to resided in the State of North Carolina, that a court decree would be issued confirming the old sale after ten weeks publication of the announcement in the newspaper if there was no response from Thomas.

According to Glover Hutchins this Thomas died in Baltimore County in 1758 and his estate was probated in the court of Baltimore County. Also, his widow remarried in 1763 in Baltimore. Glover does not record any son named Moses for Thomas. Also, if Thomas died in Baltimore in 1758 and his estate was probated in Baltimore why would Benjamin Boyce put an add in the North Carolina Gazette alleging that Thomas was then (1787) living in North Carolina?

A large branch of this Orange County family moved from Wake County to Rutherford County. This Rutherford branch has been documented by Sue Hutchins Conner of Rutherfordton. The detailed records she collected from the court house, cemeteries and family archives are presented in the histories in this book.

Another mystery of this family is the relationship of Wright Hutchins of Rutherford to Thomas Hutchins, the Revolutionary War soldier of Wake County. Thomas does not list his children in his will nor in his pension application. In 1847 the children prepared an application to obtain the last pension payment of Sarah Proctor Hutchins the widow of Thomas. This application does not include Wright Hutchins. However, only the children living at the death of the pensioner were entitled to any benefits. As Thomas was first married in 1782 to Mary Lenin Lawrence in Wake County before marrying Sarah in 1786 he could have had children by Mary born between 1783 and 1785 who were not living at her death and thus not included in the pension application.

The records show that Wright Hutchins, born between 1780 and 1784, lived near Thomas and was associated with Thomas. It is most probable that Wright is the son of Thomas by his first wife Mary. In addition the Maryland records show that Thomas's grandmother Hutchins was Elizabeth Wright. Support for the relationship of Wright to Thomas is noted in a history published in 1925 where two biographies of Wright's descendants state that they were from a family that was first established in America in Maryland and then moved into North Carolina.

Another mystery is the identity of Sarah Hutchins Poe, her mother Sarah Poe and an Elizabeth Poe all of whom were mentioned in the 1789 will of Thomas' grandfather, John Hutchins, Sr., of Wake County. A Benjamin Poe is noted in Wake County records of the period but his relationship to Sarah and their relationship, if any, to John Hutchins is not noted.

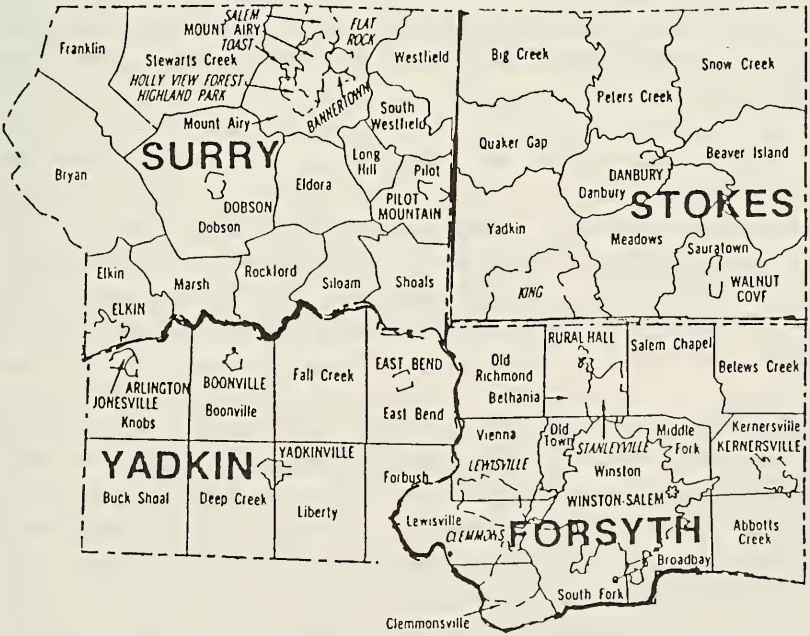
Chapter II

JOHN HUTCHINS FAMILY OF STOKES COUNTY NORTH CAROLINA

John Hutchins of Stokes County was probably born in the 1740s and was first recorded on the taxable list of Rowan County, North Carolina, in 1768. He was in Old Surry County in 1784 when he received a land grant from North Carolina. Part of his lands on Bleus Creek remained in the family until 1845. His origin before appearing in Old Surry County has not been discovered, however, as he at one time had eleven slaves he must have had a substantial amount of money when he moved into the area.



The lands on Bleus Creek are presently in Forsyth County. However, Forsyth County wasn't created from Stokes County until 1849 so the land was in Stokes during most of the family history. Stokes in turn was created in 1789 from Old Surry County and Surry came out of Rowan County in 1770 while Rowan was part of Anson County prior to 1753.

Tradition says that John Hutchins of Stokes served in the Revolutionary War and suffered saber cuts on his face and the loss of his right thumb by shot. However, there is no proof of this service. The available evidence indicates that he did not serve. He died in the 1840s yet he did not apply under the Act of 1832 for a pension for service in the Revolutionary War. Also, in 1833 John Angel of Surry County, North Carolina, applied for a pension in the Revolutionary War stating that he entered the army in September 1780 as a substitute for John Hutchins.

As John was born in the 1740s his parents must have been born in the 1720s but no individuals have been located who could be the parents. In all probability Charity Hutchins who married Aaron Lenville in Rowan County on 23 May 1769 was John's sister. She was probably born about 1750.

Although the parents of John Hutchins of Stokes County have not been identified there was a John Hutchins who on 30 March 1753 was a witness to a land sale in Anson County. This might have been prior to the 1753 division of Anson and the creation of Rowan, thus this John could have been in the area which became Surry and later Stokes. Nothing more is known about this John, however, he must have been born prior to 1732 and thus could not have been the John who died in Stokes County in the 1840s but could have been the father of John and Charity.

There was a John Hutchins baptized in Freehold, New Jersey, on 18 September 1748, who might possibly be the John of Stokes, however, there is no proof nor tradition that they are the same individual. The possibility exists because the John of Freehold was the son of John Nathan Hutchins, the brother of James Hutchins, Sr., of Monmouth County, New Jersey. James, Sr., moved to Anson County about 1747 and was the head of the Hutchins-Pintard family which was politically and economically powerful in Anson County from 1747 to 1772. It is very possible that James' nephew John Hutchins of Freehold lived for a time in the area of Anson County which is now Stokes County. It is not known whether the John who witnessed the land sale in Anson County in 1753 was John Nathan Hutchins, John Hutchins, brother of James, Jr., who later returned to New Jersey or another unidentified individual.

Many of the descendants of John Hutchins of Stokes County moved to Cumberland and Monroe counties Kentucky. Descendants are also known to have lived in Crawford County, Illinois. One record in Cumberland County shows that a John Hutchins of Chesterfield County, Virginia, purchased land in Cumberland on 10 December 1807. How Chesterfield County is associated with the Hutchins family of Stokes is not known. However, this John of Chesterfield is probably the John, Jr., of Stokes County. He must have moved to Chesterfield where he was married and then moved to Cumberland with the family.

It is most probable that the Smith Hutchins, born about 1766, who was in Tennessee and Missouri is either a brother or son of John Hutchins, Sr., of Stokes as John's son Robert had a son Smith Hutchins born on the 15th of November 1820 in Stokes County.

Although John of Stokes (174?-184?) might be of the Hutchins-Pintard family he is more likely a part of the Baltimore County, Maryland, family. John, Sr., (1698-1789) and John, Jr., (1729-1802) of Old Johnston County, North Carolina, were the son and grandson of Thomas Hutchins (1652-1732) of Baltimore County. John, Sr., of Old Johnston County, had a brother Thomas (1702-1758) whose son Moses in 1778 also moved to Orange County, North Carolina.

Thomas Hutchins (1652-1732) is reported to have had a brother William Hutchins (165?-1722) who was in Baltimore County in 1685 and is known to have had sons John, William and George and daughters Mary, Ann, and Elizabeth. Although these people are noted in the book by Glover and Elmore Hutchins their histories are not given. It is very possible that these Hutchins of Baltimore County followed their cousins down to North Carolina and are the progenitors of the Stokes County Hutchins. To support this assumption John of Stokes County at one time had eleven slaves which indicates he came into the area with financial resources. The last information mentioned by Glover on this family in Maryland is when they sold the large family estates at Bel Air, Maryland. The dates of sale are vague and need to be researched which might provide the "missing link" for the Stokes Hutchins family.

Chapter III

STRANGEMAN HUTCHINS FAMILY OF SURRY COUNTY NORTH CAROLINA

Strangeman Hutchins, age 79 years, of Goochland County, Virginia, a Quaker, his wife Elizabeth, and the families of their two sons Thomas and Benjamin moved into Old Surry County, North Carolina, in 1786. Three years before, in 1783, two other sons John and Nicholas with their families and their sister Lydia and her husband John Johnson moved into the area also from Virginia. The two brothers had explored the country in 1779 and made land entries in Surry County. Strangeman also had visited North Carolina before he moved there as the minutes of the Quaker meetings in 1756 and 1764 show that he was granted leave to visit North Carolina, maybe on church business. However, the second visit might have been to assist his sister Catherine Stanley who in 1764 removed to Guilford County, North Carolina, with her husband and children. Both the spellings Hutchins and Hutchens are used in this family.

Three other daughters and their families arrived from Virginia within the following ten years: Edith Stanley's family in 1787; and Obedience Harding and Jane Barnetts in 1796. The other two daughters, Mary Brooks and Elizabeth Barnett remained in Virginia.

The first settlement of the Strangeman Hutchins family in Surry County was northeast of Yadkinville on the branches of Forbush Creek and Deep Creek, in what is now Yadkin County, but prior to 1850 was part of Surry County. The Hutchins belonged to the Deep Creek Friends Meeting House located four and a half miles north of Yadkinville. Many of the Strangeman Hutchins family remained in Surry County while others moved into the Ohio valley and on west.

Strangeman Hutchins, the son of Nicholas, was probably born in Henrico County, Virginia, in 1707 and died in Surry County, North Carolina, on the 10th day of the 2nd month of 1792. About 1731 he married, probably in Henrico County, Elizabeth Cox daughter of Richard and Mary Cox. Elizabeth was born in Virginia in 1713. She died in North Carolina at the age of 103 years. Soon after their marriage they moved up the James River to Goochland County, along Genito Creek, about twenty miles upriver from Richmond. They sold this property while preparing for the move to Surry County.

Although this family is the best documented of all the Southern Hutchins-Hutchens families there remain several unsolved questions. There is little information on Nicholas Hutchins, the father of Strangeman. On the 8th day of the 7th month of 1699 Nicholas condemned in the Quaker Meeting House his marriage by priest. On the 9th day of the 8th month of 1701 he married in Henrico County, Virginia, Mary Watkins.

Nicholas was married for the second time in 1701 to Mary who was then 19 years old. He died in 1728/29. Assuming that he probably did not live to be more that 90 years old he would have been born after 1638 and assuming he was at least 21 years of age in 1701 he was born prior to 1680. Thus Nicholas was born between 1638 and 1680. Considering that these are outside limits a more probably range of birth dates would be 1650 to 1670 making his death at age of 80 years and his second marriage about the age of 31 years.

Research to date has not determined his history prior to his statement in the 1699 Quaker Meeting in Henrico County, Virginia.

Another mystery is the identity of a Strange Hutchins who is recorded on 5 May 1739 in the court records of Henrico County, Virginia. The court on that date ordered Abraham Childers guardian of Strange Hutchins to appear next in court with the said orphan Strange Hutchins. As Strange was an orphan and had a guardian he probably was a minor born between 1719 and 1739. Neither Nicholas, who died about 1728/29, nor his son Strangeman, born 1707, are known to have had a son Strange Hutchins born between 1719 and 1739. He could be the orphan of Nicholas who died in 1728/29. If so Strange would be about ten years of age. However, Nicholas had a son Strangeman born in 1707. It doesn't seem probable that he also named a second son Strange. Strangeman was born in 1707 and died in 1792 so the boy Strange could not be his orphan in 1739. Then who is this individual? Surely he must be related to Strangeman Hutchins of Henrico County, Virginia.

The Strangeman Hutchins-Hutchens family is documented in three excellent volumes published by Mrs. Rita Hineman Townsend of Garden City, Kansas.

the Old "Wilderness Road" in use since 1749 followed along an old Indian Trail to travel to Surry Co the Piedmont Region of NC where the Quakers were moving as in NC they had more religious freedom than in Virginia Old Surry Co in 1850 was divided to form the new Yadkin Co

Older Quarker records use the OldStyle Calendar with the New Year starting in March and the months counted from March (which was the 1st month) with Februry as the 12th month

Chapter IV

HUTCHINS-PINTARD FAMILY OF ANSON COUNTY NORTH CAROLINA

This English gentry family was founded in Anson County, North Carolina, about 1747 by James Hutchins, Sr., of Monmouth County, New Jersey. James was born about 1697 and was probably married twice. His second wife was Magdalan Pintard, daughter of Anthony Pintard a prominent merchant of New York City. James sold his New Jersey properties about 1747 and moved most of his family to North Carolina. He is recorded in Anson county on the 13th of July 1750 when he was a witness to a land sale. James, Sr., died about 1760 leaving eight children. How many of these were in North Carolina is not known but his sons Anthony and James, Jr., moved to Anson County and it is possible that the John Hutchins who also was in Anson was his son.

It is very probable that James is the son of Captain John Hutchins, born about 1655, who was an alderman of New York City and captain in the English army. John was continually feuding with the governor and council of New York and on occasions sent petitions to the King, which often resulted in favorable actions. John had extensive lands where the World Trade Center now stands, north of Trinity Church, and in Orange County. He was married twice but there are no records of him having children. However, there were two Hutchins of New Jersey who were probably his sons. James, born about 1697, who moved to North Carolina, and John Nathan Hutchins, born about 1701, who started in 1753 to publish several almanacs in New Jersey. Captain John Hutchins could also be related to Sir George Hutchins of Devon who was a Keeper of the Great Seal for King William and Queen Mary from 1690 to 1693. If so this would account for his petitions being received by the King.

In May 1703 Lord Cornbury arrived in New York City as the new governor. He was more friendly to Captain John Hutchins than was Governor Fletcher. It is interesting that when Lord Cornbury was the colonel of the Royal Regiment of Dragoons there was a Thomas Hutchins as a coronet and lieutenant in his regiment in 1687-1688.

It is very probable that the New Jersey Hutchins, who moved to North Carolina, are descendants of Captain John Hutchins of New York City. Their life style and actions could only be the result of family connections with the gentry in England as indicated by the following: James of New Jersey married Magdalan Pintard, daughter of Anthony Pintard a prominent merchant of New York City during the time Captain John Hutchins was an alderman; James and his family received large land grants in North Carolina; one of James' sons was sheriff of Anson County, North Carolina, served as a captain in the English army during the French and Indian War, was a colonel in the English militia in Natchez, and received large land grants in Mississippi; another son of James was a lieutenant colonel in the Anson County militia; a third son was also a captain in the English army and received large land grants in Mississippi. For this family to have obtained these various positions and land grants they must have had a close relationship with individuals who were well connected with the English gentry. The only Hutchins in America with these connections was Captain John Hutchins of New York City.

James' son Anthony Hutchins, born about 1724, went to North Carolina with his father and was first recorded there in 1750 when he witnessed the will of William Kemp. Anthony was absent from home for several years while he served as a captain in the 60th Regiment of the British Army during the French and Indian War. Upon his return to North Carolina he married Ann White and they had ten children born in Anson County.

Anthony speculated in land and had large grants in the Pee Dee River area of both North and South Carolina. The family was also in the High Hills of the Santee in central South Carolina. Anthony was one of the commissioners selected to determine the dividing line between North and South Carolina. Another commissioner, who is not known to be related to Anthony, was Robert Burton (1747-1825) of Mecklenburg County, Virginia. He was the son of Hutchins Burton of Mecklenburg County and he raised his nephew Hutchins Gordon Burton (1774-1836), of Granville County, North Carolina, who was governor of North Carolina from 1824 to 1827.

Anthony also was sheriff of Anson County during the revolt of the Regulators who were protesting abuses by the county officials. In 1773 he sold his North Carolina lands and moved to Natchez, Mississippi, where he was a prominent supporter of the English government. His brother James, Jr., continued to live in North Carolina.

James Hutchins, Jr., was born in Shrewsbury, New Jersey, and baptized in 1727 in the French Church in New York City. He moved to North Carolina with his father and lived in that part of the county which later was the county of Richmond, He was a lieutenant colonel in the militia and resigned his commission in 1770. James, Jr. died in Richmond County about 1782 when his estate was administered by his widow Elizabeth. James had seven children born in North Carolina. His widow Elizabeth married John Leverett prior to 1784.

A letter written in 1907 reports that Drury Hutchins of Spartanburg, South Carolina, was also a son of James Hutchins, Jr., and a Mary Octavia Drury who he is reported to have married in 1748. To date no information to confirm this has been located. However, on 5 March 1752 Anthony Hutchins purchased land in Anson County, North Carolina, from Thomas Harrington the deed was witnessed by an unknown Mary Hutchins. Was she the Mary Octavia Drury who James Hutchins, Jr., is reported to have married in 1848?

Anthony and James, Jr., had a younger brother Thomas Hutchins who made a short visit to North Carolina but never lived there. Thomas was a captain in the British Army and did extensive mapping of the Ohio and Mississippi valleys. He joined the Americans during the Revolutionary War and after American independence was the Geographer-General to the United States in charge of mapping the Western lands in the Ohio Valley.

Tradition says that James, Sr., had a son John and two daughters. The son John lived and died in New Jersey but he may have been in North Carolina in 1753 when a John witnessed a land sale in Anson County. Some old sources indicate that James, Sr., also had a son Samuel. There is no evidence that he had a son Samuel and it is probable that the Samuel Hutchins who received land grants in 1771 and 1773 in Anson County, North Carolina, was the young son of James Hutchins, Jr., mention in James' estate records. Land grants might have been requested by his father in the name of the son, although the son was only a child. It is believed the daughters of James, Sr., married and lived in New Jersey.

Although this Hutchins family had extensive estates in Anson County and in South Carolina there are no known descendants now living in North Carolina, except those of Drury Hutchins, if he was a son of James, Jr, as some sources indicate. A detailed history of how this family was associated with the national politics of the United States is presented in the book ROBERT HUTCHINS OF COLONIAL AMERICA.

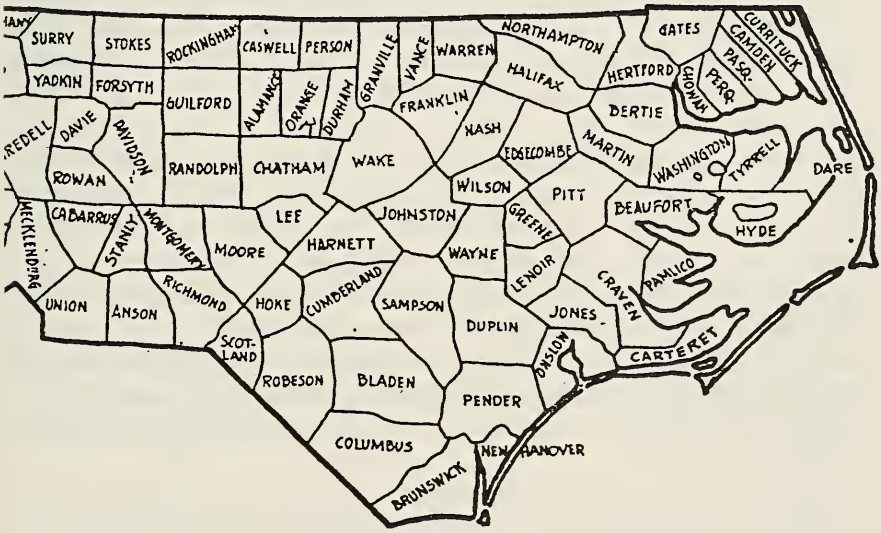
Chapter V

OTHER HUTCHINS FAMILIES OF NORTH CAROLINA

The Hutchins families of North Carolina were located in most areas of the Province prior to the Revolutionary War. In addition to the large families identified in Surry, Stokes, Anson, Yancy, Yadkin, Wake, Orange and Burke counties there were family groups in at least three other geographic areas. These families have not been well documented and it is difficult to say if they are related to the earlier Hutchins or are separate branches established by immigrants from England. The three general areas are: (1) north of Albemarle Sound just south of Virginia in the counties of Currituck and Camden; (2) south of Pamlico Sound near New Bern and along the Neuse River in the counties of Craven and Carteret; and (3) south of Mecklenburg County, Virginia, along the Virginia state line in Granville County, North Carolina.



North of Albemarle Sound there was a large family group of whom the oldest known member was Thomas Hutchins. He was born in the 1730s and was on the militia roll in 1748 and the 1750s in Currituck County which was on the coast just south of the Princess Anne area of Virginia. Thomas had a land patent on 2 May 1761 in Currituck County and his will of 19 May 1798 divided his lands amongst his fourteen children. This was a very large family in Currituck but to date the family has not been documented. One son, William, lived in Princes Anne County (now Virginia Beach), Virginia, in 1799 but it is not known if this family had any ties to the large Norfolk and Princes Anne Hutchins family from Bermuda.

South of Pamlico Sound in 1764 a Robert Hutchins was a grantee of lands in Craven County. Nothing is known about him or his family although he might be the Robert Hutchins of Dinwiddie County, Virginia, who had lands in North Carolina. An Edward Hutchins (1745-1821) was in the Revolutionary War maybe from Craven County for he is probably the Edward who exchanged Craven County lands with Miles Hutchins in 1793 and 1794.

The only other record for the Hutchins family of New Hanover is the marriage (unknown date) of William Miles Hutchins of New Hanover to Eliz Herring of New Hanover, daughter of Benjamin and Mary (Bright) Herring. It is assumed that William Miles was born in the late 1750s, but no exact date or any other information about him is known although he is possibly the William M. or Miles Hutchins noted in 1780-1790 in Craven County.

It is not known if the Thomas Hutchins who lived in New Hanover County, North Carolina, in 1734-1743 is related to this family group. Thomas, probably born about 1700, might be the same Thomas Hutchins who is mentioned in South Carolina records on the 25th of December 1746 as being given a commission as an ensign in an Independent Company of the army organized in South Carolina.

The Hutchins family group in Granville County, in northern North Carolina near the Virginia counties of Mecklenburg, Halifax and Pittsylvania, is even vaguer. About 1753 a Robert Hutchins is reported to have come from England to Dinwiddie County, Virginia. In 1766 he was noted as a chapman (merchant) of the Province of North Carolina and had claim to 300 acres of land on Spew Marrow Creek, Branch of Grasy Creek, Granville County, North Carolina, he also had lands in Halifax, Lunenburg, and Mecklenburg Counties, Virginia. In 1750 a William Huchens was on the taxable list for Granville and on the 8th of October 1754 he was a private in the militia muster. On the 4th of November 1757 he had a deed recorded in Granville County for 587 acres of land on Owen's Creek at Jos Hutchins' corner. No other records have been located about the Granville County Hutchins families.

Mecklenburg County, Virginia, adjacent to Granville but across the state line was also the home of a Hutchens Ferrell born in the 1790s? and a Hutchings Burton, I, born in 1694. It is not known if these individuals were of the same Hutchins family.

The origin of the name Hutchins Burton has intrigued many genealogists as Hutchins Gordon

Burton (1774-1836) was governor of the state of North Carolina from 1824 to 1827. He was born ca 1774 in Granville, County and died in 1836 in Lincoln County. Hutchins Gordon Burton represented Mecklenburg County in the legislature in 1809 and 1810 and was attorney general of North Carolina in 1810. His uncle Hutchins Burton was killed in the Battle of Princeton during the Revolutionary War. There were several other Hutchins Burtons.

Hutchins Burton, I, (born 1694) married Tabitha Minge and had estates in Mecklenburg and Lunenburg counties. Most accounts agree that his father was Robert Burton (1660-1724) who was the son of John Burton (1619-1689) who lived along the James River in Henrico County, Virginia, at "Oldfield" also called "Longfield". John Burton had a brother Thomas Burton, who also lived near "Oldfield". There are no records of the names, either Christian or family, of the wife of John or the family name of the wife of his son Robert. John Burton had three daughters: Mary, Rachel and Anne. Many thus assume that John's wife was named either Mary (the eldest daughter) or Rachel. Rachel is proposed by some as Thomas Burton is presumed to have married a Susanna Allen of St. Peter's Parish, Kent County. Also, in the St. Peter's parish was an Edward Howchens who had a daughter Rachel. This Rachel was too young to be the wife of John Burton but it is presumed that Edward had a sister, also named Rachel, who married John. Others propose that John's wife was Mary daughter of William Coxe and assumed granddaughter of Robert Hutchins, the mariner, who lived near William Coxe in Virginia. See Appendix V.

Chapter VI

HUTCHINS-HUTCHINGS FAMILIES OF SOUTH CAROLINA

South Carolina and the British West Indies have been closely associated every since the first group of settlers bound for the Proprietary Province of South Carolina left Bermuda in 1669 after rebuilding their ships damaged by the Bermuda reefs. The first governor of South Carolina was from Barbados as were six others out of the first 23 governors of the province. In addition four other governors were from other Caribbean Islands.

John Hutchins, probably the brother of Nathaniel, was an early settler in South Carolina and probably from the West Indies. He must have been the John whose will was probated in Charles Town on 24 January 1755 and who had been in South Carolina at least since 1740 when he was on a jury in St Andrews Parish. John named one of his sons Hillman Hutchins which indicates he was probably the same John Hutchins who was named as a son-in-law in the 4 August 1713 will of Robert Hillman of the island of Antigua in the West Indies.

Another Hutchins of South Carolina was also probably from the West Indies. Richard Hutchings, schoolmaster, signed his will on the 22nd of September 1791 at Charles Town. He was to be buried at the discretion of his friend George Simpson. Richard mentions his father Richard Hutchings of Woolminster in the parish of Crewkerne, Somerset, England. Richard the father was probably the "rebel" in Monmouth's army in 1685 and who was "not taken". It is strange his son went to South Carolina for the rebels who were taken were sold as "slaves" to the West Indies planters. It is assumed that some of these men when they were later freed came to America. Was Richard related to some of these captured rebels who were sent to the islands?

Richard named George Simpson "his good friend" in 1788 and Nathaniel Hutchins in his will signed at Charles Town in 1729 gives half his estate to Robert Simpson, if his "wife be not living". The Simpsons of Charles Town must be relatives of the Hutchins of that area.

The early Hutchins inhabitants of South Carolina were probably of three different groups of settlers. The first group were the planters from the West Indies. They came to South Carolina with their families, servants and slaves. These planters also had the services of a group of reprieved prisoners sentenced to be transported to work for seven years (or more) on plantations in America.

The first two Hutchins recorded in Charleston were William and Richard who represented the group of reprieved prisoners. It is not known if they were related but both were sentenced at London in April 1718 to be transported to America. Richard's arrival was noted by the Governor of South Carolina when he included his name in a group of servants who had entered the colony. He was transported on the EAGLE in August 1718 and was on the ship when it was captured by the pirate Worley. Although the ship was taken to Charles Town in October 1718 a landing certificate wasn't issued for Richard until March 1719. William was transported on the TRYAL in May 1718 and a certificate was issued for his landing in Charles Town in August 1718. No information has been located about these two Hutchins after their arrival. However, it is possible that William Hutchins is the William and wife Elizabeth who were members of the Congregational Church in Charleston in 1735.

Another group of settlers were probably free or indentured immigrants from England. Nathaniel Hutchins, mariner, prepared his will in March 1729 and it was presented in Charles Town in April 1729. It mentions that he was from Portsmouth, County of Southampton, Europe, and had a wife Anne and a brother John. From the will it appears that his wife had stayed in England and he had no children for he gives her his estate "if she be living", if not the estate was to be divided between his brother John and Robert Simpson.

In 1733 a Nicholas Hutchins was noted in Granville County, South Carolina, and in 1746 Thomas Hutchins, late of the Life Guards was given a commission in an Independent Company of the British Army raised in South Carolina as noted in the Historical Records of the Life Guards, London 1835, page 154. Thomas Hutchins, ensign in Colonel Venderduson's Independent Company, died in South Carolina as a bachelor and his estate was probated in the Prerogative Court of Canterbury, London, England, in October 1749.

Another Thomas Hutchins was recorded in 1763 with Elizabeth Hutchings in a South Carolina judgment roll and who also was noted on the 5th of July 1767 in the Common Pleas Court of Berkeley County, South Carolina, about a note due from Thomas Bingham. The origin of this Thomas Hutchins is not known nor is there any information to show that he is related to the Thomas Hutchins in New Hanover County, North Carolina, in the 1740s.

Another group of Hutchins were mariners, ship captains, who lived in or stopped at Charleston. They may have been part of the large Hutchins family of Bermuda which roamed over the Atlantic coast and the islands in pursuit of their commercial interests. Joseph Hutchins (1719-1779) a captain was associated with several vessels clearing the Charles Town harbor.

There are only fragments of information on these early South Carolina Hutchins and it has not been possible to reconstruct their lives or identify their present day descendants.

One large South Carolina family has been documented in the book ROBERT HUTCHINS OF COLONIAL AMERICA. Members of the Drury Hutchins family lived in South Carolina and also in Georgia. Drury was born about 1760 in the Pendleton District and died in 1814 in the Perkins District. A DAR record states that his father was Drury Hutchins, Sr., who was born in Virginia in 1708 and died in Anderson County, South Carolina, in 1788. This Drury Hutchins, Sr., is said to have married Magdalen Pintard and to have served as a captain in the South Carolina forces during the Revolutionary War. There is no evidence to document that Drury Hutchins, Sr., existed or to support him being a captain at the age of 68 years and marrying a Magdalen Pintard. A Magdalen Pintard, daughter of a prominent merchant of New York City married James Hutchins, Sr., of Monmouth County, New Jersey about 1724. No other marriages of a Pintard and Hutchins are known.

In 1907 after several years of research on the Hutchins-Pintard family Celeste Hutchins Tillman of Mexico City and later of New York City wrote to a relative that she had just found out that Drury Hutchins, born 1760, was the son of James Hutchins, Jr., born 1727, and his wife Mary Octavia Drury. James and Mary are reported to have been married in 1748. Celeste did not mention the source of her information and no evidence has been located to verify this marriage. Drury Hutchins, born 1760, lived for many years around Spartanburg, South Carolina, and he was recorded there in the 1790 census.

Drury Hutchins could be the son of James Hutchins, Jr., as the Hutchins-Pintard family had land holdings in South Carolina although there are no records documenting their life in that state. This is difficult to understand as most land records, etc., are for the Hutchins-Pintard family in Anson County, North Carolina. However, several records (Rowland's History of Mississippi and Sparks' Memories of Fifty Years) refer to the Hutchins family of Mississippi as being from the Santee Hills (High Hills of the Santee) of South Carolina. It is probable that James Hutchins, Sr., moved to the High Hills of the Santee when he went south but that his sons lived in Anson County.

Also, in the 1790 census for Spartanburg was a Drury Hutchison, born in Amelia County, Virginia, in 1745. He served as a private in the Virginia militia during the Revolutionary War and received a Virginia pension. Drury Hutchinson moved to Spartanburg in 1788 and lived there until his death in 1836. It is strange that the only known Drury Hutchins of that period would be living in the same area as this Drury Hutchison.

SOUTH CAROLINA had early ties with the West Indies. The first group of settlers bound for the Proprietory Province of South Carolina left Bermuda in 1669 after rebuilding on the island their ships damaged by the reefs. The first Governor of SC was from Barbados as were six other governors out of the first 23 governors of the Province. In addition four other governors were from other Caribbean Islands. Many of the early families of South Carolina were from the British Caribbean.

On the 11th of June 1685 the Protestant Duke of Monmouth, illegimimate son of the late King Charles who died in 1685, arrived in Lyme Regis, Dorset, with an army to overthrow his Catholic half-brother, King James II. The Duke proclaimed himself the new king of England and the protector of the Protestant religion. A large number of the Protestant husbandmen, yeomen and tradesmen of the West County joined his army to gain religious freedom. The army went to Taunton, Somerset, then to Bridgewater and on to Bristol. However, the gentry and the people in the cities did not join with the Duke and his army was defeated at Sedgemoor near Bridgewater on the 5th of July 1685. His followers were hunted down and those who were "taken in" were tried in a mock court and either hung and quartered or sold to West Indies planters for a number of years as laborers. They were treated worse than slaves for the planters only had the labor of the Rebels and did not own them. On the 13th of February 1689 William of Orange landed in England and King James II fled. The Rebels were freed in 1691 but they could not leave the islands without the governer's license so many still remained as "slaves". Some probably left the islands and went to the American colonies via Carolina which had close ties to Barbados and the West Indies. Public records show that at least one Hutchins of South Carolina was probably a son of a Rebel. How many more were Rebels or related to the Rebels is not known.

ARTHUR HUTCHINS of Cudworth Somerset "in the rebellion and not come in"

MOSES HUTCHINS (weaver) of Taunton St Mary "probably died at Sedgemoor" aided Blue Regt

RICHARD HUTCHINS of Woolminstre Crewkerne Somerset "rebel in Monmouth's army and not taken"

RICHARD HUTCHINGS schoolmaster signed his will 22SP1788 at Charles Town SC. The will was proven in SC on 10FE1791, he was to be buried at the discretion of his friend George Simpson. Witnesses: were John Jones, Geo Simpson and Tho Jervis. Richard, Jr, mentions his father RICHARD HUTCHINGS of Woolminster in the parish of Crewkerne, Somerset, England. Will states that his share of property he received from his father he bequeaths to his nephew WILLIAM HUTCHINGS of Wolverhampton in Staffordshire, England, who was to be executor of the estate. The will was also proven in PCC England (73 Bever). RICHARD HUTCHINGS, SR, was probably the RICHARD HUTCHINS, who was from Woolminstre in the parish of Crewkerne in Somerset, noted as rebel in Monmouth's army and "not taken."

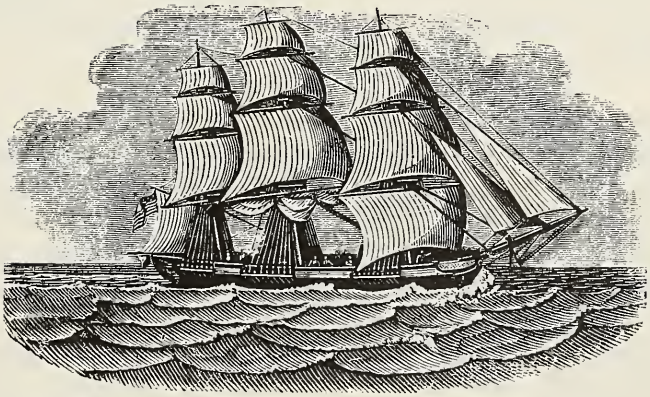
COLONIAL AMERICA

(Supplement)



Book II

PREFACE

The book ROBERT HUTCHINS OF COLONIAL AMERICA was prepared in 1991 and included all the information available at that time on the various early Hutchins families. This volume WILLIAM HUTCHINS OF CAROLINA includes additional data which has become available since 1991 and only repeats the original data as required to tie in the new information.

This volume also indicates any corrections which are needed in the original data due to more accurate information becoming available. In many cases there may be two or more dates indicated for the same event. Often one date will be the actual date of birth while another may be the date of baptism which in some cases could be many years after the birth and could even be a death bed baptism. Dates of death are also often in disagreement as at times the date of burial is recorded and not the date of death. Marriage dates likewise might be the date of the marriage license or the date of the marriage ceremony.

During the preparation of these volumes fragments of information have been received from many different sources and in many cases it has not been possible to properly tie the new data into any existing lines. In such cases it is recorded for future incorporation as needed.

Many names are spelled differently as presented by various sources. In most cases the names have been presented as received although it might appear that the spelling is incorrect. No attempt has been made to determine if the spelling is "correct". Also, the name Hutchins has been spelled in over seventy different ways and again the spelling as used at the time has been recorded. In some areas of the South the name Hutchins is often spelled Hudgins, Hudgens, Huggins, etc. In addition the frequent use of Hutchinson for the name Hutchins has always complicated the search for Hutchins data.

Some of the most active research on the Hutchins-Hutchings families of Tennessee, Missouri, and Virginia has recently been conducted by David Raymond Hutchings and his wife Wilma (Morrison) Hutchings of Neosho, Missouri. They have examined the public records in court houses of the area and searched libraries and cemeteries seeking information to identify the parents of Christopher Hutchings of Pittsylvania County, Virginia. David is a descendant of Christopher's son Charles Hutchings who married Elizabeth Dillard. Most of the Hutchings, Dillards and Donelsons of Virginia and Tennessee were inter-related and related to President Andrew Jackson through his wife Rachael Donelson, sister of the wife of Thomas Hutchings of Nashville, Tennessee.

large cotton plantations only started after the cotton gin was put in use in 1793 before that time the cleaning of the cotton was so laborious that a planter could only produce from 200 to 500 pounds of cotton a year with the gin doing the cleaning it was now profitable to raise cotton and many planters switched from tobacco to cotton which was easier on the soil and could be grown for many years on the same ground

(Note)
My Lady's Manor book by Glover and Elmore Hutchins is very good but it leaves many questions for example in their book they show the will of THOMAS HUTCHINS 1702-1758 was filed in the MD court 1758 and name the children also his widow remarried in 1763 however in 1788 land was sold by Moses a son not in the will also Baltimore Co Families 1659-1759 by Robert W Barnes GPC also has another son not in the Elmore book also on 29NV1787 a notice was placed in the NC Gazette stating that Thomas was assumed to be living in NC based on on these items there might be more unidentified children

Timothy Hutchings,

Died

At West Danby, Tompkins County,

New York,

September 21st, 1887, aged 73 years.

[From the Ithaca, N. Y. Journal, Sept. 22.]

OBITUARY.

Timothy Hutchings, of West Danby, died after a prolonged illness, at the age of seventy-three, at the residence of his son Thomas, at six o'clock on Wednesday evening. The deceased was for many years of his earlier life a teacher, and later a merchant. He also did service as a soldier in the 16th H. A., and the exposure consequent upon it undoubtedly did much to shorten his life.

He leaves him surviving two sons, Thomas and Henry, residents of West Danby, and a daughter, the wife of Rev. E. G. W. Hall, of South Addison, N. Y.; and four sisters: Mrs. Hannah Lukens, of Wilmington, Del., Mrs. Abbie Brown, of Great Bend, Pa., Mrs. Letitia Faurat, of St. Louis, Mich., and Mrs. Bathena Wilson, of California. C. M. Benjamin, of this place, is a step son of the deceased.

The funeral services were held at West Danby, Friday, at one o'clock; and the interment made at the family plot at Spencer.

The departed was a gentle, courteous man, abounding in kindly consideration for others. His walk in life was correct and stainless, and his memory will be long revered by all who knew him.

CHRISTOPHER HUTCHINGS bought land 1787 in Monroe Co TN from JOHN DILLARD Monroe Co created 1819 from Roane Co which was created 1801 from Knox and Blount Counties Blount was created in 1795 from Knox Co which was created in 1792 from Greene and Hawkins Counties Greene was created 1783 from Washington C and Hawkins Co creted 1786 from Sullivan Co TN therefore the land in Monroe Co must have been in Hawkins or Greene Counties in 1787 and only became Monroe Co in 1819 after forming parts of several other counties did she marry Lafayette first?? not probable he died in 1862 when she was 8 years old! were there 2 different Lafayettes a service record shows that he was captured on 31MY-1JN1862 byGen Sumner at Fair Oaks taken to Ft Monroe VA and sent to Ft Delaware DE 5JN1862 there is no record of return to duty was he exchanged and returned to his unit? to died on 21DE1862 or did he survive to be second husband of Elizabeth after 1898?? JOHN Major HUTCHINGs 1773-1817 (RHCAp685) paid tax 1805 he business partner of Gen JACKSON DavidsonC TN 1812 Bedford JOHN HUTCHEON heir at law of THOMAS made in 1814 a deposition in Maury C TN about his father's land entry JOHN HUTCHINS and General ANDREW JACKSON were ca 1805 assignees of JOHN G & THOMAS BLOUNT of 1000 acres of land on the Boiling Fork just below WinchesterTN Franklin Co (TN Cousins by Worth S Ray)

JOHN HUTCHINGS & ANDREW JACKSON given a receipt for land 5JN1788 (Tenn & King's Mount Papers p 73 Wisconsin Historical Publication Calendar Series v 3) this reference has not been checked but if it is correct (1788) then there may have been another John Hutchings associated with Andrew Jackson Major JOHN HUTCHINGS was born in 1773 in 1788 he would have been only 15 years old and it seems doubtful that he would be on a legal receipt at that age (maybe an earlier achiever) in 1804 and 1806 JOHN wrote letters one on 30 March 1804 said he had reached Nashville on his way to Orleans and had the misfortune of sinking one boat with 20 to 25 bales getting wet and would write when he got to Natchez from New Orleans he wrote in 1806 about the progress of his trip where he had taken "flats" (flat-boats) transporting cotton to market they also had a barge which would be sent back up river while the flats were sold for lumber on 23 May 1806 he reported sold cotton 20 cents per lb that the barge left New Orleans on the 8th of May and hoped it will be home (Nashville ?) by the 10th of July

CHRISTOPHER HUTCHINGS ca1720-1807 lived in Halifax County VA before moving to Pittsylvania Co VA where he died several sons moved into Tennessee the origin of Christopher has not been determined but an item for study is that in 1782 an unknown Christopher Hutchins signed a petition in Baltimore Co MD opposing the sale of the estate My Lady's Manor where a large Hutchins family had lived for generations Is Christopher of Pittsylvania a descendant of the Maryland branch? several of the Maryland banch moved into Wake and Orange Counties NC and for a time were in Augusta Co VA it is also possible that the Hutchins of Stokes Co NC may also be descendants of the Maryland family

To the north and east of "Arrowhattocks" was an area known as "Longfield" which was first mentioned in records of 1635, however, the owner's name is not listed. As its location coincides with part of the old "College Plantation" of 10,000 acres between the Falls and the Neck, which belonged to the Virginia Company of London, it is possible that the occupants were tenants. George Thorpe was appointed manager of the "College Plantation" in 1619. Seventeen people were killed there in the massacre of 1622.

To the north-west of "Arrowhattocks" on the south side of the James River was Falling Creek where the first iron furnace in America was established as early as 1610. In 1622 Captain John Berkley was among the twenty-two people killed at the iron works and others were killed at nearby plantations. In 1635 the place was called Fallen Creek. The massacre of 1622 desecrated the land around "Arrowhattocks" and life was slow to return to the area.

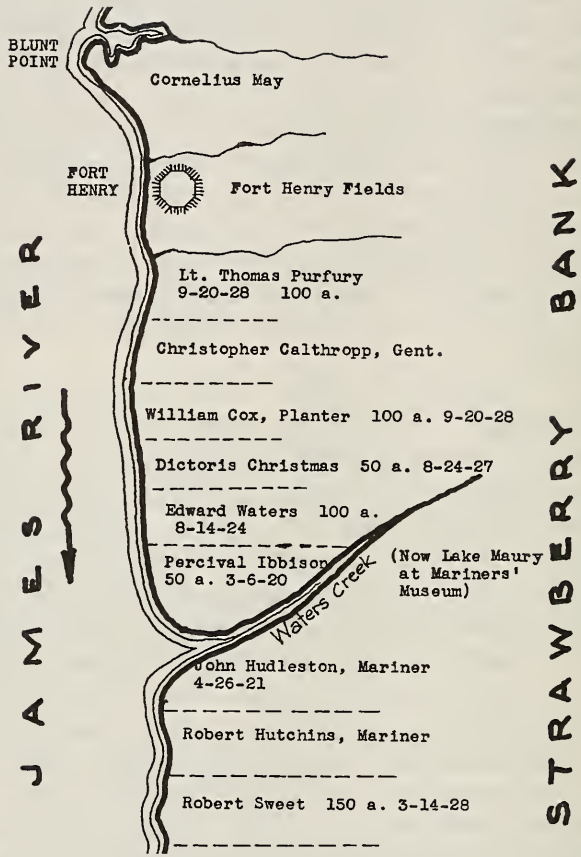
Although the "Arrowhattocks" area is the later setting for the Coxe-Hutchins-Burton family history it actually begins when William Coxe, then a lad of twelve years, arrived in Virginia on Sunday, June 10, 1610, in the ship GODSPEED which formed part of the convoy headed by Thomas West, Lord De La Warr. Lord De La Warr or Thomas West (1577-1618) was the third of his family to carry the title.

Thomas West had a younger brother, Francis West (1586-1633) who came to America about July 1609 but went to England early in 1610 to return to Virginia the same year. He was involved in a quarrel with Captain John Smith, who is said to have conspired with Powhatan to kill West.

Smith, however, was injured by a gunpowder explosion and returned to England on the 5th of October 1609 where he defended his actions. In 1612 Frances succeeded George Percy as commander at Jamestown. The Third Lord De La Warr also had a brother Robert West who married Elizabeth Coxe. It is assumed that the twelve year old lad, William Coxe, was related to Elizabeth and came to Virginia in the care of one of his numerous kinsmen. In the muster of 1624 William Coxe was then 26 years old and the only "Ancient Planter" from the GODSPEED who was then surviving.

On September 10, 1628, William Cox, planter, received his "Ancient Planter" grant of 100 acres on the north bank of the James River, as recorded in Land Book 1, Part 1, page 89. The location is identified as in Harwoods Neck, bounded on the west by Deep Creek, on the south by the James River, to the east by other patents, and a smaller creek known as Water's Creek. Later this area was known as the Strawberry Bank community. It is south of Blunt Point in Elizabeth City County not far from the present site of the Newport News Shipbuilding & Dry Dock Company. In 1636 he left the Strawberry Bank community and moved up the James River to land in Henrico County near Alice Edloe, probably his sister.

When William Coxe arrived in Strawberry Bank a near neighbor south of Water's Creek was Robert Hutchins, the mariner. Robert had received a patent to these 100 acres below Blunt Point in May 1625. His lands on the Strawberry Bank are mentioned as abutting the land granted on 14 March 1628 to Robert Sweete.



Robert Hutchins was a mariner, ship captain, and has a long but obscure history in the Virginia colony. He is first mentioned in 1611 when George Percy, commander at Jamestown, was indebted to Robert for 25 shillings. (VA Hist Mag Vol 57, p 240). His land patent was dated in May 1625 and in 1628 his land was adjacent to lands then granted to Robert Sweete on Strawberry Bank. Captain John Smith in his 1630 book mentions obtaining from Master Hutchins, in London, the latest information concerning the affairs in Virginia. On July 5, 1656, a land record of Captain Christopher Calthropp mentions as bounds the Strawberry Bank land of Robert Hutchins.

The evidence indicates that Robert, in the earlier years, probably kept his family in England but spent much of his life in Virginia where he probably had tenants on his land. His family has not been identified but land records indicate that he probably had two children who came to Virginia about 1633: a daughter Elizabeth Hutchins, born about 1612, who probably married William Coxe and a son Isaac Hutchins. The headrights for Isaac's transport, along with those for Robert Craddock, were claimed in 1637 by Captain Thomas Osborne. In the same year Mathew Edlow, Jr., claimed headrights, due his father, for transporting twenty-four people including William Cox and his wife Elizabeth. These headrights were probably based on the Coxes returning to Virginia after a visit to England. Alice Edlow, the step-mother of Mathew, was probably a sister of William Coxe.

The headrights for the original arrival of Elizabeth Hutchins in Virginia were claimed in 1642 by William Warren. This patent for several hundred acres included the present "Yorkby" near the mouth of the York River. Among the rights exchanged for the land was that of Elizabeth Hutchins. Although the patented land was on the York River, William Warren in 1633 was a near neighbor to both Robert Hutchins and William Coxe on Strawberry Bank. The dates noted for the headrights are difficult to correlate with the actual arrival of the people in the colony. Headrights were bought and sold, and even resold, and also often held for several years to accumulate sufficient rights to exchange for the desired acreage. This system was subject to abuse and consequently was abandoned soon after.

William Coxe and Elizabeth were probably married about 1633 and had at least four children: two daughters and two sons: Thomas and John. Thomas was mentioned in records of May 6th 1665 when it is noted that he had previously sold land at "Warrick" to Mr. John Knowles. This was part of the land on "Fallen Creek" belonging to the orphans of William Coxe. The son John, Sr., probably married Robert Craddock's daughter and was the only one of William's children known to have left issue. John Coxe,Sr., was born about 1635 and died in Henrico in 1676, he had a son Richard Coxe who died about 1735 in Virginia. Richard married Mary Trent, the daughter of Henry Trent and Elizabeth Sherman and the granddaughter of Henry Sherman and his wife Cisley, who was the widow of Isaac Hutchins. Mary Trent and Richard Coxe had a daughter Elizabeth Cox, born February 25th 1713. About 1731 their daughter Elizabeth married Strangeman Hutchins son of Nicholas Hutchins and Mary Watkins.

The Coxe-Hutchins-Burton families are first recorded around "Arrowhattocks" starting on November 10, 1635, when Alice Edloe, widow, obtained 350 acres in Henrico County, between "Harrow Attocks" and the Falls on the same side of the river that "Harrow Attocks" lyeth. The Great Swamp was on the east side of her land. The Falling Creek was, "over against", across the river and opposite "The Great Field" lands of Alice. Her land was in part of the old "College Plantation". These lands are located on the James River about nine miles below the present Richmond. Her daughter Hannah Boyce also patented lands joining her mother.

The lands patented in 1635 by Alice Edloe, widow, were in the area of Henrico County destroyed by the Indians in 1622. Alice Edloe was the widow of Luke Boyce who arrived in the colony on the "Edwin" in May of 1619. His wife Alice and their daughter Hannah, born about 1615 in England, arrived in 1622 on the "Bona Nova". Luke died on the 21st of June 1625 and Alice then married Mathew Edloe, who died about 1635. When Alice and Hannah moved north her step-son Mathew, Jr., stayed on his father's land in James City, but records referred to Alice as the owner.

About a year later William Coxe with his wife Elizabeth and Isaac Hutchins, who probably was his brother-in-law, obtained land in Henrico next to Alice Edloe. William probably lived in the Varina community from which he represented Henrico as a Burgess in 1646. He is at times confused with the prominent Richard Cocke family which arrived in the colony about 1635 but which had no William of the age of William Coxe.

William Coxe retained his 100 acre "Ancient Planter" seat on Strawberry Bank, although presumably his ten year lease had expired in 1638 but was probably renewed for in 1642 he was still recorded as the owner of these lands. William and Alice both recorded their Henrico patents on the same day, November 29, 1636. In 1638 William Coxe and Isaac Hutchins had joint ownership of land in the "Lilly Valley" area of Henrico next to Alice.

About 1652 John Burton probably married Mary Coxe, daughter of William Coxe and Elizabeth Hutchins. Their first child, Mary Burton, was born in 1654, about two years before the death of William Coxe. After his death his widow, Elizabeth (Hutchins?) Coxe married William Elam whose will dated 1688 mentions his son-in-law, John Cox, Sr. (son-in-law then meant step-son). She died in 1665 and John Coxe and Mary (Coxe) Burton, children of William and Elizabeth Coxe, probably settled her estate.

Alice (Coxe?) Edloe's daughter Hannah Boyce on the 11th of November 1635 also obtained 300 acres near "Arrowhattocks" joining upon the north side of the land of Alice Edloe, her mother. This claim was renewed on the 13th of July 1637. The land on the north side of Hannah's property was acquired on June 1, 1636, by James Place when he was granted 550 acres. James Place's land was later found to escheate to his Majesty as by inquisition dated September 5th, 1663, and was then re-granted on December 30, 1663, to John Brown and Edward Hatcher. James Place was also assigned an additional 60 acres to the north of his new land on June 14, 1936 by Christopher Branche. These 60 acres were later acquired on April 10, 1638 by John (or Thomas) Barton.

On the 29th of November 1636 William Coxe obtained 150 acres on the east side of The Great Swamp which separated his land from the land of Alice Edloe. He also must have acquired additional lands to the east for in 1637 he assigns these easterly lands to Robert Craddock and John Davis. Robert Craddock's daughter was later to marry William's son John Coxe, Sr., and John Davis was later to marry Mary Burton, daughter of John Burton and Mary Coxe and granddaughter of William Coxe. John Davis, the husband of Mary Burton, named the land he acquired from William Coxe as "Longfield".

Davis increased his land on October 31, 1642, when he acquired an additional 200 acres adjacent to his "Longfield" patent extending northwest towards land of Cornelius de Hull. At this time John Davis was given credit for the transport of his wife Mary Davis and her three servants and also John Cox and others.

The plantation "Longfield" was sold by John Davis to John Coxe in 1665, about the time of the death of Elizabeth Coxe, mother of John Coxe. John Coxe then assigned the 700 acre plantation "Longfield" to John Burton, husband of his sister Mary Coxe, probably as her share of their mother's estate. John Coxe then acquired for himself a plantation of 550 acres at "Arrowhattocks".

William, who died about 1656, also had 250 acres of land across the river at the mouth of Falling Creek obtained in partnership with Isaac Hutchins on the 1st of September 1642. These lands belonged on December 14, 1656, to "the orphans" (then meaning heirs not minor children) of William Coxe. On that date Peter Lee acquired 126 acres called "Worricke" bounded on the southwest by a small run, at a place called London Bridge, which divided his land from land belonging to the orphans of William Coxe, bounded on the southeast by the main river and on the northeast by Isaac Hutchins.

Isaac Hutchins also obtained his 378 acre grant of land in "Worricks" on the 14th of December 1656. It was lyeing next to land of Peter Lee, southeast on the main river and northeast to a place called "Porringers Spring". Isaac was probably the son of Robert Hutchins, the mariner, and brother to Elizabeth Coxe, wife of William Coxe.

Isaac had other lands on the south of the river near "Worricks" for on the 1st of September 1642 he bought 250 acres in partnership with William Coxe at the mouth of Falling Creek.

The "Worricks" land was in addition to land Isaac had on the north of the James River near "Lilly Valley" as noted when on May 29, 1638, Robert Craddock acquired 300 acres in Henrico County, bounding northly on a little creek towards "Lilley Valley" upon land of William Coxe and Isaac Hutchins and south bounding on land of John Davis. This puts the land of Isaac east of "The Great Field" of Alice Edloe.

Isaac Hutchins probably came to Virginia about 1633 prior to the 16th of June 1637 when Captain Thomas Osborne was given credit for Isaac's headrights. Isaac married Cicely "Sisly" and had one child, a son Robert, who was mentioned in Isaac's will of February 23, 1656. In April 1714 the Henrico court concluded that Robert, son of Isaac died under age and without issue and thus the lands of Isaac reverted to his wife Cicely. She had married Henry Sherman after the death of Isaac. Her granddaughter, Mary Trent, married Richard Coxe, the grandson of William Coxe. Mary Trent and Richard Cox had a daughter Elizabeth Cox, born February 25th 1713 who about 1731 married Strangeman Hutchins son of Nicholas Hutchins and Mary Watkins of Henrico County.

On the same day, November 29, 1636, that William Coxe was awarded his claim for land east of the Great Swamp of Alice Edloe, she obtained an additional 50 acres of land on the north side of the river about half way between "The Great Field" land and the "Harroe Attocks" neck. The north edge of this land adjoined "Longfield". Also, because of a land dispute on June 1, 1637,

Alice Edloe, widow, renewed her claim for the 350 acres of "The Great Field" between "Harrow Attocks" and the Falls and on the 14th of July in the same year she claims the 100 acres of the swamp between "The Great Field" and the lands of her brother William Coxe to the east.

On the 8th of December 1653 Mathew Edloe, her step-son (we now use the term step-son but at that time it was called son-in-law), was granted 281 acres near "Harrahatocks". He assigned this land to Thomas Taylor on the 20th of March 1662.

On August 15, 1637, the 600 unoccupied acres south of the old "Longfield" and north of the river between the lands of William Coxe and the 50 acres she just acquired were acquired by Robert Craddock and John Davis. This acquisition included 300 acres which were assigned by William Coxe and Richard Carpenter. Part of the 600 acres of Craddrock and Davis was on the south side of the river "over against" the lands of William Coxe. John Davis, the husband of Mary Burton, granddaughter of William Coxe, named the land he acquired from William Coxe as "Longfield". Craddock later sold this land to John Cox, who assigned it to John Burton. Burton also obtained 100 additional acres for transporting two people.

In 1637 came the advent of large plantations near "Arrowhattocks" when on February 6, 1637, Captain Thomas Osborne established the 1,000 acre plantation "Fearing" over against (across the river and opposite) "Arrowhattocks". Thomas Osborne was given credit for transporting Robert Craddock, Isaac Hutchins, and others. On the 16th of June 1637 Thomas Osborne, Jr., also obtained 500 acres, which he called "Batchelers Bancke", adjoining the north side of "Fearing".

On September 24, 1638, Alice Edloe increased her 50 acre "lot" just above "Arrowhattocks" to 150 acres (probably based on a resurvey of the land). In 1642 the land east and south of "Mrs. Edloe's Swamp" was acquired by Cornelius de Hull. The creek on the north of his land, which feeds into the swamp, he named "Lilley Valley". Later the name was changed to "Cornelius Creek". This was the same land acquired in 1637 by William Coxe but the book "Cavaliers and Pioneers" does not record the acquisition by de Hull. On October 31, 1642 de Hull extended his land known as "Lilley Valley" by 502 acres beginning next to Mrs. Edloe's Swamp, near his own land and southeast upon John Davis and southwest to the river. Part of this land, 250 acres, was in the grant to William Coxe in 1637.

Upon the death of his mother, about 1665, John Coxe bought "Longfield", of 700 acres, on March 22, 1665, from John Davis and assigned it to John Burton, husband of Mary Coxe his sister, probably as her share of her mother's estate. Burton called the estate "Oldfield". However, many writers now refer to the Burton family of "Longfield". At the same time John Coxe acquired his 550 acre plantation at "Arrowhattocks". John Cox's new plantation and John Burton's "Oldfield" were separated by the 150 acres of land which Captain Mathew Edloe obtained in 1653.

John Burton (1632-1689) and his wife Mary (Coxe) Burton had seven children, among them Robert Coxe of "Longfields". Robert (1665-1724) married Mary, probably a Nowell, and had five children, one being named Hutchins Burton (1694-1763). Hutchins Burton married Susannah Allen and became the progenitor of numerous Hutchins Burtons, one a governor of North Carolina - long after the source of the name had been forgotten.

Although Simeon Oliver Coxe (1877-1955) did extensive research on the Coxe family of "Arrowhattocks" he is a descendant of William Coxe through John Burton who married Mary Coxe, daughter of William Coxe. His own Coxe paternal line is an entirely different family not associated with the James River Coxe.

THE MYSTERIES OF HUTCHINS ANTIQUITY

In the study of the Hutchins-Hutchings-Hutchens families several intriguing individuals have crossed the paths of known families but research to date has not been able to identify them and to account for their presents at the times and places recorded in historical documents. The following mysteries remain to be solved.

English Adventurers and Planters

During the period when Englishmen were engaged in exploring the New World for trade routes and planting company trading centers several English Hutchins gentry families were associated with various of these events. It is most probable that these Hutchins families were related, however, to date no relationship has been documented.

Stephen Hutchins of Plymouth and Saltash in Devonshire in the years 1562 and 1567 had claims against the Plymouth Corporation for moneys owed to Stephen, probably for some adventure in the New World. In 1628/29 when the Massachusetts Bay Company was chartered by the King a London merchant-taylor, Thomas Hutchins, was one of the twenty-six individuals who formed the new company. Thomas was one of the first associates or directors of the new company. He was not reelected an associate in 1629 when it was agreed to transfer the company headquarters to New England. It is therefore assumed that he did not move to the colony. In 1635 he appeared in court in England when the King charged the organizers of the company with deception for creating a company whose headquarters were outside of England and thus less able to be controlled by the Crown. It is now known if Thomas ever came to the Massachusetts Bay Colony.

When the charter was first signed by the King in 1628/29 copies of the document were made to be sent to John Endicott who was then in Salem, New England, as the governor of the new colony. The copies were signed on 17 May 1629 by George Hutchins who certified that they were accurate copies of the original. The relationship, if any, of George Hutchins to Thomas Hutchins has not been established.

The Hutchins name, as shown in court records, was often spelled in New England as Houchins, Houtchins, Houchin, etc. On 9 November 1653 Elizabeth Houchin, daughter of Jeremy Houchin of Boston, New England, married John Endecott, Jr., the son of the first governor of the Massachusetts Bay Colony. Jeremy was the son of a William Houchin probably the William Houchins who was noted in 1647 in Boston records as being an attorney. This William is probably the same William Hutchins who was listed in the 1638/39 will of his father Thomas Hutchins of Crewkerne, Somersetshire, Old England, to receive five pounds if he returned from New England.

No relationship is known between the various individuals mentioned above. Thomas Hutchins of London was the son of Thomas Hutchins of the city of Chester (Cheshire). In 1608 Thomas, Jr., was apprenticed to John Stockley, a Merchant-Taylor of London. John Hutchins a mercer (merchant) of Manchester signed the apprentice bond and was probably an uncle of

Thomas, Jr. A William Harrison of Fondardson(?) in the county of Lancaster also signed. Thomas Hutchins of London had a brother William Hutchins who died about 1647. William was a student and fellow of Brasenose College (Oxford) from 1603 to 1619. Later he was rector of the parish church at Gawsworth (Cheshire) from 1630 until ejected in 1643, as a result of the Civil War. In William's will of 1647 he mentions children (no names) of his uncle Edward Hutchins. It is assumed this Edward was the one born in 1558 who attended Brasenose College from 1576 to 1581. He was prebendary of Sarum (Wiltshire) in 1589 and died in 1629. Edward had a large family but the histories of these children have not been documented, however, some of them might have moved to the New World to supervise the family's interests.

Edward was probably related to a Randall Hutchins of county Denbigh (next to Cheshire) in Wales who attended Brasenose College and who also held a living in the Church.

Research is in progress to identify these various Hutchins and determine their relationship, if any, to the early Hutchins planters in the New World.

Sir George Hutchins of Devon

George Hutchins was baptized in Georgeham, Devon, England, on 16 August 1640 and died in Holborn, Middlesex, England, on 6 July 1705. He was the son of Edmund Hutchins the parish priest of Georgeham. Edmund was baptized in Ludgvan, Cornwall, in September 1605 the son of George Hutchins rector of Ludgvan. This George was probably baptized on 11 February 1564 the son of John Hutchins whose children were baptized in Wedmore, Somerset, England. George of Wedmore attended Trinity College, Oxford, where he received an MA on 24 November 1601.

George of Georgeham was knighted on 31 October 1689 by King William II and from 14 May 1690 to 22 March 1693 was third commissioner (Keeper) of the Great Seal of King William. As Keeper of the Great Seal in 1691 he sealed the second charter for the Massachusetts Colony.

Sir George had two sons but neither had issue and thus there are no known Hutchins descendants, although his great-granddaughter was the wife of Lord North, prime minister of England during the American Revolution. While Sir George was Keeper of the Great Seal a Captain John Hutchins was in New York City with a company of soldiers raised for duty in the colony. Later as an alderman of the city he had a continual feud with the Governor of New York and John sent several petitions to the King which resulted in favorable actions. It is assumed that in some manner he was related to Sir George. It is also probable that John was the progenitor of the large Hutchins-Pintard family of New Jersey which later moved into North Carolina and Mississippi.

Hutchins of Maryland

A history of the Hutchins of Baltimore and Harford counties in Maryland assumed that the family had its origin in Wood Burcote, Northampshire, Old England. However, the first records are of Thomas (1652-1732) in Baltimore County about 1680-1685. It is also assumed that the William Hutchins (165?-1722) in Baltimore County at the same time was his brother. At Thomas' death in 1732 his estate inventory showed sixteen pair of shoes, indicating that Thomas, in addition to farming, probably had a shoe business. It is of interest that on 10 June 1684 a William Hutchins merchant of London, England, sent John Lowdon, a shoemaker of Exeter, Devon, to Maryland as an indentured servant for five years.

There is no proof to support the assumption in the family history that Thomas and William were the sons of a John Hutchins of Virginia. In fact records show that William of Maryland was not the William of Lancaster County, Virginia, as indicated in the history. More over, court records show that Moses Hutchings a grandson of Thomas Hutchins of Baltimore County moved to Wake County, North Carolina, and raised a large family. Also, John Hutchins, a son of Thomas, also moved to Wake County and established one of the largest North Carolina Hutchins families.

There is a mystery about Thomas, the father of Moses of Wake County. According to the family history he died in Baltimore County and his estate was administered there in 1758. Before his death the family had sold property in Baltimore. In 1787 a notice was placed in the North Carolina Gazette stating it was assumed that Thomas Hutchins was then living in North Carolina and he should answer the notice to approve the old land sale, if he did not answer the sale would be adjudged to be legal. His son Moses replied and he again sold the property to remove any legal claim that might have existed. If Thomas' estate was administered in Baltimore County why was it assumed in 1787 that he was living in North Carolina?

Hutchins of Virginia

Christopher Hutchings was born about 1620 and first recorded in Orange County, Virginia, in 1741. He lived in that part of the county which in 1745 became Culpeper County. About 1772 he moved to Pittsylvania county where he died in 1807. Christopher had a large family which included sons Thomas, born about 1740 in Culpeper, John born about 1746, Moses born in 1754 and others. There was no known William in the family of Christopher.

In 1781 a William Hutchings was made an ensign of militia in Pittsylvania County, Virginia. This William would have to be twenty-one years of age so born before 1760. Many of Christopher's sons were officers in the Pittsylvania militia at that time but there is no known William born about 1760. Was he part of the William Hutchins (165?-1722) family of Baltimore County, Maryland, and maybe a relative who was in Pittsylvania for a short time? The William Hutchins, son of Robert Hutchins of Dinwiddie County, Virginia, was known to have a relationship to Pittsylvania County, but this William was born on the 6th of October 1770, thus in 1781 he would be only eleven years old.

Another large Virginia Hutchins family can be traced back to a Nicholas Hutchins of Henrico County, Virginia, who died in 1728/29. He had a son Strangeman Hutchins born in 1707 who died in Surry County, North Carolina, in 1792. The Henrico County court records for 5 May 1739 show an Abraham Childers, as guardian for the orphan Strange Hutchins. This Strange Hutchins has not been identified but it is assumed that he is part of this large Nicholas-Strangeman Hutchins family unit.

THOMAS HUTCHINS OF SALEM

JACK RANDOLPH HUTCHINS OF ROCKVILLE, MARYLAND

1. Jack Randolph Hutchins of Rockville, Maryland, is a descendant of Thomas Hutchins of Salem, Massachusetts. Jack was born in Spokane, Washington, on 28 March 1927. He lives in Rockville, Maryland, with his wife Janice Arlene (Keckhafer) Peters Hutchins and their three younger daughters: Mary, Jeanine and Melissa.

Jack is continuing his research in genealogy and family history which he started during his days in high school when he lived with his grandparents in Hinsdale, Montana. However, for most of the years his avocation had to be sandwiched between his many professional activities which followed his service in the army and navy during World War II. After the war he completed college and then worked for the United States Bureau of Public Roads for twenty years with assignments in eight states including the construction of the highway up the side of Mount Hood in Oregon to Timberline Lodge.

During the Korean War he served in the United States Air Force as a Nuclear Research Officer in the Sandia Armed Forces Base in New Mexico. At the end of the war he returned to the Bureau's headquarters office before he was assigned to Addis Ababa, Ethiopia, for five years to develop the Imperial Highway Authority into a modern agency capable of reconstructing and maintaining the roads of the empire which were badly damaged during the war. From Addis Ababa he was transferred to Lima, Peru, were he assisted the Ministry of Transportation in planning and financing highways to provide access into the remote jungle areas of eastern Peru.

Upon the completion of that assignment he returned to the Bureau's headquarters but was soon loaned to the Inter-American Development Bank to evaluate the technical and financial feasibility of constructing a modern highway across the Andes Mountains between Chile and Argentina. The Bank then placed him on their staff to work in Mexico to assist in executing a program for the construction and improvement of 2,500 miles of highways in all parts of the nation. Upon completion of that task Jack returned to the headquarters office of the Bank in Washington, D.C., where he was in charge of evaluating transportation projects in all the Banks member countries: Mexico, Central America, the Caribbean Islands and South America.

Jack retired from the Bank in 1992 after twenty-five years service. Prior to retirement he was honored by the Governments of Peru and Bolivia for the services he had rendered to these two countries in developing their transportation systems to support their economic development. Upon retiring he and the family spent two months in England where Jack explored the archives for genealogical material in between tours to all parts of England, Scotland and Wales and a brief junket to see the sites of Belgium and France. After returning home he started on this sixth volume of the histories of the Hutchins families

While he worked in Mexico for a year and a half the family remained in their home in Rockville where the five children went to school. Soon after Jack got back to Washington, D.C., his wife Ruth Newman Hutchins started a long struggle against cancer which finely overcame her. Later Jack married Janice Arlene (Keckhafer) Peters after the death of her husband Martin James Peters, III. Janice and Martin had two daughters Victoria and Kristina who were incorporated into the Hutchins clan and later joined by three more sisters, Mary, Jeanine and Melissa.

Janice was with an insurance administration company before leaving to devote her time to the family. She is now active in the St. James' child care center where she can enjoy the pleasures of association with the young children now that her own have advanced to the high school, college and parenting ages. She often does have a chance to "mother" some of their twenty-one grandchildren but they are spread from the Atlantic to the Pacific and from the Canadian boarder to Florida so visiting them is limited, particularly as the youngest daughter is still in high school and needs support during her teenage years.

Besides working in the center she devotes her time to gardening and refurbishing the house and garden and providing emotional support for the children in college or to advise on the problems young mothers always encounter. She manages occasional visits with her parents Edwin and Olga Keckhafer who are retired in Morehead, Minnesota, and with her seven siblings all living in Minnesota or across the river in North Dakota.

1-10. Melissa Lynn Hutchins, the youngest of the ten children, was born on the 17th of August 1979 in Silver Spring, Maryland.

During the time she attended Ritchie Park Elementary School she played soccer and for one year was on a select soccer team. When she entered the McLean School she started playing field hockey and lacrosse. Melissa completed McLean in June 1994 where she was vice-president of the school and the class valedictorian. In the fall she entered the Bullis School where she was goalie for the field hockey and lacrosse varsity teams. She is pursuing Spanish studies and during the summer of 1994 attended the Concordia Spanish Language camp in Minnesota. In addition to the family visit in the summer of 1992 to England, Belgium and France she visited Mexico, Spain, France and Italy with her language class at McLean. During the summer she worked as an assistant in a doctor's office at Dupont Circle.

19. Jeanine Olga Hutchins was born in Silver Spring on the 2nd of September 1976. She is now attending Mary Baldwin College in Staunton, Virginia, where she entered after graduating from Richard Montgomery High School in Rockville in June 1994. During her senior year of high school she also took evening classes at Montgomery College and worked as a teaching intern at the McLean School where she attended before transferring to Richard Montgomery. Upon graduation from the McLean School she was selected for the Citizenship Award for her contribution to the school life during her years of attendance.

In grade school and at high school Jeanine was on the varsity soccer teams as well as playing in the MSI soccer league while attending elementary and high school. At Mary Baldwin she became a founding member of the first soccer team in the school. While in high school Jeanine spent two summers at the U.S. Space Academy at Huntsville and in 1994 attended the Concordia Spanish Language camp in Minnesota. During 1992 Jeanine visited the historical sites in England, Scotland, Wales, Belgium and France and in 1995 she was a naturalist for the Rockville recreation department giving instruction at seventeen different camp areas.

18. Mary Louise Hutchins was born January 5, 1975, in Silver Spring, Maryland. She attended Ritchie Park Elementary School, the McLean School of Maryland, Newport Preparatory School and Montrose Christian School where she graduated in June 1993. While in school she was on the soccer, field hockey, lacrosse, volleyball and basketball teams. At McLean she was president of her sophomore class and upon graduation was presented with the Head Master's Award for being the outstanding student in her class.

Mary graduated with honors in May 1995 from Lasell College as an Associate in Early Childhood and Elementary Education. She is now in her junior year at Lasell and is developing a program to provide supplies and materials to day care centers in low income areas of Boston. Lasell is the oldest college for women in Boston, Massachusetts, and the second oldest women's college in the nation. Mary attended the U.S. Space Academy during her summers while in high school and in 1992 visited the British Isles and the Continent. During the summer of 1995 she worked in St. James Child Center in Rockville and visited the island of Mallorca off the southern coast of Spain which is the old family home of her friend.

17. Kristina Janice Peters was born on August 7, 1970,in Washington,D.C. "Kiki"attended Ritchie Park Elementary School, Robert Frost Middle School and graduated from Holy Child High School in 1988. While in school she was on the soccer and soft ball teams and in the spring of 1987 visited England and Scotland with her school class. After graduation from high school she went to High Point College in North Carolina and then continued her studies at Montgomery College. Kristina is interested in business and was in sales and customer relations at Circuit City an electronic sales company. She then moved to Citizens Bank where she soon was promoted to head teller in one of the branch offices. The Marriott Corporation offered her a more interesting position and she is now Credit Manager at the Marriott hotel in Bethesda.

After completing that course he was assigned to the USS Bowen (FF-1079) where he was promoted to Senior Chief and participated in the Grenada Operation as well as the Lebanon Operation which resulted in the USS Bowen being the first United States warship since World War II to fire shots against an enemy. When his tour ended on the USS Bowen, he was selected as the most junior enlisted man to attend the Senior Enlisted Academy located in Newport, Rhode Island. After graduation he was assigned to Johnson City, Tennessee, as a Zone Supervisor for the Navy Recruiting Command. His next assignment took him to the USS Fahrion (FFG-22) as the maintenance officer. He also was "triple hatted" serving not only as Command Master Chief, but also as maintenance officer and shipboard computer coordinator. During this tour he was promoted to Master Chief Petty Officer six years earlier than his peers. During his sea tours, he visited countries in Europe, Asia, the Middle East, South America, the Caribbean, and was involved in the Desert Shield and Storm operations in the Red Sea region.

After completing his tour on the USS Carr (FFG-52) he was transferred to the Shore Intermediate Maintenance Activity (SIMA) with the initial

SUE (HUTCHINS) CONNER

Sue (Hutchins) Conner of Rutherfordton, North Carolina, collected a vast amount of information on the Rutherford County Hutchins families which she provided for use in this volume. Sue was born in the Centennial Community, Camp Creek Township of Rutherford County, North Carolina, on the 8th of December 1935, the third child of Elijah 'Ligie' Taft Hutchins, (December 30, 1908 - July 25, 1985) and Lela Thedoshia Smart, born February 20, 1914. In 1995 Lela was 81 years old and lived in Rutherfordton.

The progenitor of Sue's Hutchins family of Rutherford County was Thomas Hutchins who moved in 1796 from Wake County, North Carolina, to Tryon County (now Rutherford County). Thomas was born in Augusta County, Virginia, on the 22nd of January 1753 and died in Rutherford County on December 7, 1843. His father and grandfather were from Baltimore County, Maryland. Sue's maternal grandparents, William, Smart, Sr., and his wife Isabella, came to Mecklenburg County, North Carolina, (now Rutherford) during the 1760s from Chester County, Pennsylvania. Indications are that William's father was John Smart who came to Maryland from England.

Sue attended the Alexander Schools in Union Mills, North Carolina, where she graduated in 1955. While at school she participated in the FHA Club, 4H Club, English Club, and was president in her senior year of the athletic Black 'A' Club and secretary of her class. While in school she played basketball, softball and was the 'Most Co-operative' student.

Sue Hutchins married James Junior Conner in Rutherford County on December 8, 1955. He was born on the 1st of October 1955, the son of Van Hampton and Rebecca Conner. After marriage Sue lived in Fair Forest, Spartanburg, South Carolina, and Snellville, Georgia. Sue and James had three children: Jimmy Dean, James Scott and Terry Steven. They were divorced in 1972 and Sue returned to Rutherford County where she now resides.

Sue attended Isathermal Community College in Spindale, North Carolina, and graduated from Bo Mar College of Beauty Culture at Forest City on the 3rd of August 1971. She then began working for Tanner and Doncaster, Inc., in Rutherfordton where she retired in 1985 after 30 years because of Rheumatoid Arthritis.

Sue, a Republican and member of the Southern Baptist Church, was a member of the Junior Chamber of Commerce and an active trophy winning member of the Spindale Bowling League. She is a life-time member of the Genealogical Society of Old Tryon County.

After a life time of work and searching for the Hutchins of Rutherford County Sue is now retired and enjoying her family. She is no longer digging through the court house basement dusty files or tracking through the cow pastures to locate that long forgotten graveyard where the progenitors of the Hutchins of Rutherford County might have their final resting place.

DAVID RAYMOND and WILMA (MORRISON) HUTCHINGS

David Raymond Hutchings and his wife Wilma Corrine (Morrison) Hutchings have made an exhaustive search in libraries and court houses in Missouri, Tennessee, and Virginia to locate data on his ancestors Christopher Hutchings of Pittsylvania County, Virginia, and Christopher's son Charles Hutchings of Rutledge Mill Creek, Tennessee. They have cooperated with the author in providing copies of the hundreds of documents they have found during their quest.

David lives in Neosho, Missouri, where he was born on August 20, 1938. While going to high school he worked in local grocery stores and was produce manager in the Safeway Store when he completed Neosho High School in 1956.

In his senior year at school he joined the Missouri Army National Guard and in February 1996 will complete 40 years in the Guard where he is First Sergeant of "A" Company, 203rd Engineer Battalion. He is also the custodian of the Neosho armory to insure it is secure and in condition to accomplish its assigned mission.

David's last training assignment was in the summer of 1995 when his unit went to Panama on a road construction mission in the old Panama Canal Zone. This area has been turned over to the Government of Panama and the unit assisted in the construction of a road to an isolated community to help the farmers improve their economy.

In 1958 David went to work at Fort Crowder, Missouri, for Rocketdyne, a division of North American Rockwell Aviation. This company at its facilities near Neosho built rocket engines for the space program. From Rocketdyne he went with Teledyne Neosho which operated a depot level jet engine overhaul center for the Air Force. He was a leadman in the electroplating and paint department and stayed with the company when it was acquired by Sabreliner when the work was expanded to include overhaul of commercial jet engines.

David graduated at age fifty from Tarkio College with a Bachelor's of Science in Business Administration which he acquired on the G.I. Bill. He is an outdoors man enjoying deer hunting, bass fishing and golf. He and his wife Wilma are now doing extensive research in history and genealogy in their quest to find the parents of Christopher Hutchings of Pittsylvania County, Virginia.

Wilma was born the 29th of July 1941 at Stella, Missouri, east of Neosho. She went to a one-room country school for eight years before going to Neosho High School where she graduated in 1959. She then worked for several years in the local hospital in the Medical Records Department.

David and Wilma Morrison were married on the 18th of February 1967. For the first twelve years of their marriage she was "a stay at home Mom" to give their two daughters support during their younger years. She then worked for the school district for twelve years and is now with an insurance agency. She enjoys cooking for her children and grandchildren in addition to her genealogical work.

They are both on the Belfast Community Cemetery Director's Board where David's great-grandfather gave the cemetery land to the community and was the first one buried there seventy-five years ago. Before the turn of the century Wilma's great-great grandfather Marrs gave the land for the Hazelgreen Cemetery. Their interest in the family has kept then busy researching genealogy in the Missouri, Tennessee and Virginia areas.

NATHAN BRADLEY AND RHEA JOYCE (MARTIN) OBERG

Joyce Oberg in 1991 prepared a history of her Hutchins family of Tennessee which is a branch of the Pittsylvania (Virginia) Hutchins. Her material was later incorporated into the book ROBERT HUTCHINS OF COLONIAL AMERICA. Joyce is the wife of Nathan Bradley Oberg whose mother was Carrie Mae Hutchins before her marriage to Edwin William Oberg. In addition to the Hutchins genealogy Joyce has completed her ancestral lines in over ten families dating back before the 1500s with several German knights on both sides.

Nathan was born near Clarendon, Arkansas, on the 7th of July 1925. In 1928 the family moved to Hermann, Missouri, where his brother Clarence Wesley was born on the 16th of July 1929. After high school he served three years in the US Army during World War II attaining the rank of corporal. He was awarded two Battle Stars during the war. After returning from the service Nathan graduated from Ranken Technical College and then worked for the Zero Manufacturing Corporation as an engineer and technical salesman. He retired after thirty-nine years with the corporation where his work involved extensive overseas travel supervising the dairy equipment operations. During his career he obtained seven patents for his equipment development.

Nathan and Rhea Joyce Martin were married on the 29th of May 1948. Joyce was born in Morning Sun, Iowa, on the 28th of August 1929 the daughter of Harry Louis and Ida Margarette (Rohlfing) Martin. Joyce's sister Delight "Dee"

Clara was born on April 28, 1922, in Berger, Missouri. The family moved to Gasconade, Missouri, in 1932.

Nathan and Joyce live in Washington, Missouri, where Joyce has completed twenty-seven years at Hazel, Inc. They are both members of St. Peter's United Church of Christ. Nathan is a life member of the VFW and has thirty-five years with the Boy Scouts. Joyce is a member of several genealogical societies. They have two children: son Larry Bradley Oberg is married to Adele Mauri (Truesdell) George and daughter Linda Joyce Oberg is married to James Edward Fleer.

A GENEALOGY of the COXE - HUTCHINS - BURTON
FAMILIES OF HENRICO COUNTY, VIRGINIA
1611 - 1665

by
SIMEON OLIVER COXE, Jr.
August 15, 1910 -

The Reverend Simeon Oliver Coxe (1877-1955) made an extensive study of the Coxe-Hutchins-Burton families along the James River in Virginia. After his death his son Simeon, Jr., assisted Mrs. Nellie M. Knox of Loveland, Colorado, with data for a supplement to her earlier edition of the "History and Genealogy of the John Pleasants Burton Family of Lawrence County, Indiana".

* Note: additional information has been included by Jack Randolph Hutchins.

While gleaning through his father's files he became interested in carrying on the family research and proceeded to analyze the land grants and patents in Henrico County as recorded in "Cavaliers and Pioneers". These grants and patents were plotted on topographic maps to show the location and relationship of the various lands along the James River. In comparing land ownership and movements of owners he was able to piece together the information which he included in a publication printed in 1964 and revised in 1992. On August 24, 1995, Simeon, Jr., lived in a retirement home in Spanish Fort, Alabama.

After long and detailed research Simeon, Jr., noted that there have been several articles written about the relationship of the Coxe-Hutchins-Burton families, but due to the scarcity of ancient records, they are largely based on conjecture and circumstantial evidence. He notes that although his papers do not have much additional hard data to present, they do have much better circumstantial evidence to support the conclusions stated. Members of these families were all adjacent or nearby land owners in the "Lilley Valley" and "Fallen Creek" areas of Henrico and in the Strawberry Bank community of Elizabeth City. The chronology of events and the nearly simultaneous movements of individuals and their interactions in land transactions point to a very close family relationship which can best be explained as noted in his publications.

There has been a lot of speculation as to the Christian and family names of the wife of John Burton and the names of the wife of his son Richard Burton. Some give the Christian name of John's wife as Rachel because that was the name of his second daughter and the name Rachel was used in the Howchins family of St. Peters Parish, Kent County, Virginia, where some assume John obtained his bride. New Kent records do not show a Rachel of the age to be the wife of John Burton but some assume that Edward Howchins, father of Rachel baptized in 1686 in St. Peters Parish, might have had an unknown sister named Rachel, who married John Burton.

Moreover, it was then the custom to name the eldest daughter after the mother. If they followed this custom the wife of John Burton was named Mary. The Burton families and the Coxe families were intermingled in land transactions along the James River which presents the good possibility that Mary Coxe, daughter of William Coxe of Strawberry Banks and probably granddaughter of Robert Hutchins, was the wife of John Burton. If she were his wife it would account for the use of the Hutchins Burton name for the grandson of John Burton.

The setting for the Coxe-Burton-Hutchins story is near a place frequently mentioned in the old records as "Arrowhattocks". In one of its various spelling it was mentioned in the writings of Captain John Smith and was some twelve miles from the "Fales" on a small neck of land on the north side of the James River. The new town of Henrico was planted in 1611 on the large neck of land, also on the north of the river, just to the south of "Arrowhattocks". The town was burned by the Indians in 1622 and was never rebuilt. The land is now in the Richmond National Battlefield Park, one and one-half miles below Fort Hoke, near the intersection of the Osborne Pike and the Kingsland Road.

To the north and east of "Arrowhattocks" was an area known as "Longfield" which was first mentioned in records of 1635, however, the owner's name is not listed. As its location coincides with part of the old "College Plantation" of 10,000 acres between the Falls and the Neck, which belonged to the Virginia Company of London, it is possible that the occupants were tenants. George Thorpe was appointed manager of the "College Plantation" in 1619. Seventeen people were killed there in the massacre of 1622.

To the north-west of "Arrowhattocks" on the south side of the James River was Falling Creek where the first iron furnace in America was established as early as 1610. In 1622 Captain John Berkley was among the twenty-two people killed at the iron works and others were killed at nearby plantations. In 1635 the place was called Fallen Creek. The massacre of 1622 desecrated the land around "Arrowhattocks" and life was slow to return to the area.

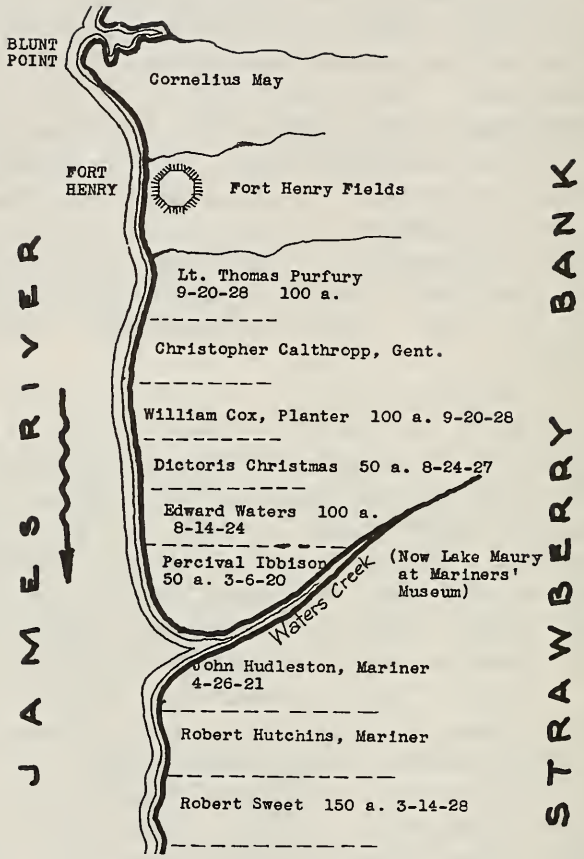
Although the "Arrowhattocks" area is the later setting for the Coxe-Hutchins-Burton family history it actually begins when William Coxe, then a lad of twelve years, arrived in Virginia on Sunday, June 10, 1610, in the ship GODSPEED which formed part of the convoy headed by Thomas West, Lord De La Warr. Lord De La Warr or Thomas West (1577-1618) was the third of his family to carry the title.

Thomas West had a younger brother, Francis West (1586-1633) who came to America about July 1609 but went to England early in 1610 to return to Virginia the same year. He was involved in a quarrel with Captain John Smith, who is said to have conspired with Powhatan to kill West.

Smith, however, was injured by a gunpowder explosion and returned to England on the 5th of October 1609 where he defended his actions. In 1612 Frances succeeded George Percy as commander at Jamestown. The Third Lord De La Warr also had a brother Robert West who married Elizabeth Coxe. It is assumed that the twelve year old lad, William Coxe, was related to Elizabeth and came to Virginia in the care of one of his numerous kinsmen. In the muster of 1624 William Coxe was then 26 years old and the only "Ancient Planter" from the GODSPEED who was then surviving.

On September 10, 1628, William Cox, planter, received his "Ancient Planter" grant of 100 acres on the north bank of the James River, as recorded in Land Book 1, Part 1, page 89. The location is identified as in Harwoods Neck, bounded on the west by Deep Creek, on the south by the James River, to the east by other patents, and a smaller creek known as Water's Creek. Later this area was known as the Strawberry Bank community. It is south of Blunt Point in Elizabeth City County not far from the present site of the Newport News Shipbuilding & Dry Dock Company. In 1636 he left the Strawberry Bank community and moved up the James River to land in Henrico County near Alice Edloe, probably his sister.

When William Coxe arrived in Strawberry Bank a near neighbor south of Water's Creek was Robert Hutchins, the mariner. Robert had received a patent to these 100 acres below Blunt Point in May 1625. His lands on the Strawberry Bank are mentioned as abutting the land granted on 14 March 1628 to Robert Sweete.



Robert Hutchins was a mariner, ship captain, and has a long but obscure history in the Virginia colony. He is first mentioned in 1611 when George Percy, commander at Jamestown, was indebted to Robert for 25 shillings. (VA Hist Mag Vol 57, p 240). His land patent was dated in May 1625 and in 1628 his land was adjacent to lands then granted to Robert Sweete on Strawberry Bank. Captain John Smith in his 1630 book mentions obtaining from Master Hutchins, in London, the latest information concerning the affairs in Virginia. On July 5, 1656, a land record of Captain Christopher Calthropp mentions as bounds the Strawberry Bank land of Robert Hutchins.

The evidence indicates that Robert, in the earlier years, probably kept his family in England but spent much of his life in Virginia where he probably had tenants on his land. His family has not been identified but land records indicate that he probably had two children who came to Virginia about 1633: a daughter Elizabeth Hutchins, born about 1612, who probably married William Coxe and a son Isaac Hutchins. The headrights for Isaac's transport, along with those for Robert Craddock, were claimed in 1637 by Captain Thomas Osborne. In the same year Mathew Edlow, Jr., claimed headrights, due his father, for transporting twenty-four people including William Cox and his wife Elizabeth. These headrights were probably based on the Coxes returning to Virginia after a visit to England. Alice Edlow, the step-mother of Mathew, was probably a sister of William Coxe.

The headrights for the original arrival of Elizabeth Hutchins in Virginia were claimed in 1642 by William Warren. This patent for several hundred acres included the present "Yorkby" near the mouth of the York River. Among the rights exchanged for the land was that of Elizabeth Hutchins. Although the patented land was on the York River, William Warren in 1633 was a near neighbor to both Robert Hutchins and William Coxe on Strawberry Bank. The dates noted for the headrights are difficult to correlate with the actual arrival of the people in the colony. Headrights were bought and sold, and even resold, and also often held for several years to accumulate sufficient rights to exchange for the desired acreage. This system was subject to abuse and consequently was abandoned soon after.

William Coxe and Elizabeth were probably married about 1633 and had at least four children: two daughters and two sons: Thomas and John. Thomas was mentioned in records of May 6th 1665 when it is noted that he had previously sold land at "Warrick" to Mr. John Knowles. This was part of the land on "Fallen Creek" belonging to the orphans of William Coxe. The son John, Sr., probably married Robert Craddock's daughter and was the only one of William's children known to have left issue. John Coxe,Sr., was born about 1635 and died in Henrico in 1676, he had a son Richard Coxe who died about 1735 in Virginia. Richard married Mary Trent, the daughter of Henry Trent and Elizabeth Sherman and the granddaughter of Henry Sherman and his wife Cisley, who was the widow of Isaac Hutchins. Mary Trent and Richard Coxe had a daughter Elizabeth Cox, born February 25th 1713. About 1731 their daughter Elizabeth married Strangeman Hutchins son of Nicholas Hutchins and Mary Watkins.

The Coxe-Hutchins-Burton families are first recorded around "Arrowhattocks" starting on November 10, 1635, when Alice Edloe, widow, obtained 350 acres in Henrico County, between "Harrow Attocks" and the Falls on the same side of the river that "Harrow Attocks" lyeth. The Great Swamp was on the east side of her land. The Falling Creek was, "over against", across the river and opposite "The Great Field" lands of Alice. Her land was in part of the old "College Plantation". These lands are located on the James River about nine miles below the present Richmond. Her daughter Hannah Boyce also patented lands joining her mother.

The lands patented in 1635 by Alice Edloe, widow, were in the area of Henrico County destroyed by the Indians in 1622. Alice Edloe was the widow of Luke Boyce who arrived in the colony on the "Edwin" in May of 1619. His wife Alice and their daughter Hannah, born about 1615 in England, arrived in 1622 on the "Bona Nova". Luke died on the 21st of June 1625 and Alice then married Mathew Edloe, who died about 1635. When Alice and Hannah moved north her step-son Mathew, Jr., stayed on his father's land in James City, but records referred to Alice as the owner.

About a year later William Coxe with his wife Elizabeth and Isaac Hutchins, who probably was his brother-in-law, obtained land in Henrico next to Alice Edloe. William probably lived in the Varina community from which he represented Henrico as a Burgess in 1646. He is at times confused with the prominent Richard Cocke family which arrived in the colony about 1635 but which had no William of the age of William Coxe.

William Coxe retained his 100 acre "Ancient Planter" seat on Strawberry Bank, although presumably his ten year lease had expired in 1638 but was probably renewed for in 1642 he was still recorded as the owner of these lands. William and Alice both recorded their Henrico patents on the same day, November 29, 1636. In 1638 William Coxe and Isaac Hutchins had joint ownership of land in the "Lilly Valley" area of Henrico next to Alice.

About 1652 John Burton probably married Mary Coxe, daughter of William Coxe and Elizabeth Hutchins. Their first child, Mary Burton, was born in 1654, about two years before the death of William Coxe. After his death his widow, Elizabeth (Hutchins?) Coxe married William Elam whose will dated 1688 mentions his son-in-law, John Cox, Sr. (son-in-law then meant step-son). She died in 1665 and John Coxe and Mary (Coxe) Burton, children of William and Elizabeth Coxe, probably settled her estate.

Alice (Coxe?) Edloe's daughter Hannah Boyce on the 11th of November 1635 also obtained 300 acres near "Arrowhattocks" joining upon the north side of the land of Alice Edloe, her mother. This claim was renewed on the 13th of July 1637. The land on the north side of Hannah's property was acquired on June 1, 1636, by James Place when he was granted 550 acres. James Place's land was later found to escheate to his Majesty as by inquisition dated September 5th, 1663, and was then re-granted on December 30, 1663, to John Brown and Edward Hatcher. James Place was also assigned an additional 60 acres to the north of his new land on June 14, 1936 by Christopher Branche. These 60 acres were later acquired on April 10, 1638 by John (or Thomas) Barton.

On the 29th of November 1636 William Coxe obtained 150 acres on the east side of The Great Swamp which separated his land from the land of Alice Edloe. He also must have acquired additional lands to the east for in 1637 he assigns these easterly lands to Robert Craddock and John Davis. Robert Craddock's daughter was later to marry William's son John Coxe, Sr., and John Davis was later to marry Mary Burton, daughter of John Burton and Mary Coxe and granddaughter of William Coxe. John Davis, the husband of Mary Burton, named the land he acquired from William Coxe as "Longfield".

Davis increased his land on October 31, 1642, when he acquired an additional 200 acres adjacent to his "Longfield" patent extending northwest towards land of Cornelius de Hull. At this time John Davis was given credit for the transport of his wife Mary Davis and her three servants and also John Cox and others.

The plantation "Longfield" was sold by John Davis to John Coxe in 1665, about the time of the death of Elizabeth Coxe, mother of John Coxe. John Coxe then assigned the 700 acre plantation "Longfield" to John Burton, husband of his sister Mary Coxe, probably as her share of their mother's estate. John Coxe then acquired for himself a plantation of 550 acres at "Arrowhattocks".

William, who died about 1656, also had 250 acres of land across the river at the mouth of Falling Creek obtained in partnership with Isaac Hutchins on the 1st of September 1642. These lands belonged on December 14, 1656, to "the orphans" (then meaning heirs not minor children) of William Coxe. On that date Peter Lee acquired 126 acres called "Worricke" bounded on the southwest by a small run, at a place called London Bridge, which divided his land from land belonging to the orphans of William Coxe, bounded on the southeast by the main river and on the northeast by Isaac Hutchins.

Isaac Hutchins also obtained his 378 acre grant of land in "Worricks" on the 14th of December 1656. It was lyeing next to land of Peter Lee, southeast on the main river and northeast to a place called "Porringers Spring". Isaac was probably the son of Robert Hutchins, the mariner, and brother to Elizabeth Coxe, wife of William Coxe.

Isaac had other lands on the south of the river near "Worricks" for on the 1st of September 1642 he bought 250 acres in partnership with William Coxe at the mouth of Falling Creek.

The "Worricks" land was in addition to land Isaac had on the north of the James River near "Lilly Valley" as noted when on May 29, 1638, Robert Craddock acquired 300 acres in Henrico County, bounding northly on a little creek towards "Lilley Valley" upon land of William Coxe and Isaac Hutchins and south bounding on land of John Davis. This puts the land of Isaac east of "The Great Field" of Alice Edloe.

Isaac Hutchins probably came to Virginia about 1633 prior to the 16th of June 1637 when Captain Thomas Osborne was given credit for Isaac's headrights. Isaac married Cicely "Sisly" and had one child, a son Robert, who was mentioned in Isaac's will of February 23, 1656. In April 1714 the Henrico court concluded that Robert, son of Isaac died under age and without issue and thus the lands of Isaac reverted to his wife Cicely. She had married Henry Sherman after the death of Isaac. Her granddaughter, Mary Trent, married Richard Coxe, the grandson of William Coxe. Mary Trent and Richard Cox had a daughter Elizabeth Cox, born February 25th 1713 who about 1731 married Strangeman Hutchins son of Nicholas Hutchins and Mary Watkins of Henrico County.

On the same day, November 29, 1636, that William Coxe was awarded his claim for land east of the Great Swamp of Alice Edloe, she obtained an additional 50 acres of land on the north side of the river about half way between "The Great Field" land and the "Harroe Attocks" neck. The north edge of this land adjoined "Longfield". Also, because of a land dispute on June 1, 1637,

Alice Edloe, widow, renewed her claim for the 350 acres of "The Great Field" between "Harrow Attocks" and the Falls and on the 14th of July in the same year she claims the 100 acres of the swamp between "The Great Field" and the lands of her brother William Coxe to the east.

On the 8th of December 1653 Mathew Edloe, her step-son (we now use the term step-son but at that time it was called son-in-law), was granted 281 acres near "Harrahatocks". He assigned this land to Thomas Taylor on the 20th of March 1662.

On August 15, 1637, the 600 unoccupied acres south of the old "Longfield" and north of the river between the lands of William Coxe and the 50 acres she just acquired were acquired by Robert Craddock and John Davis. This acquisition included 300 acres which were assigned by William Coxe and Richard Carpenter. Part of the 600 acres of Craddrock and Davis was on the south side of the river "over against" the lands of William Coxe. John Davis, the husband of Mary Burton, granddaughter of William Coxe, named the land he acquired from William Coxe as "Longfield". Craddock later sold this land to John Cox, who assigned it to John Burton. Burton also obtained 100 additional acres for transporting two people.

In 1637 came the advent of large plantations near "Arrowhattocks" when on February 6, 1637, Captain Thomas Osborne established the 1,000 acre plantation "Fearing" over against (across the river and opposite) "Arrowhattocks". Thomas Osborne was given credit for transporting Robert Craddock, Isaac Hutchins, and others. On the 16th of June 1637 Thomas Osborne, Jr., also obtained 500 acres, which he called "Batchelers Bancke", adjoining the north side of "Fearing".

On September 24, 1638, Alice Edloe increased her 50 acre "lot" just above "Arrowhattocks" to 150 acres (probably based on a resurvey of the land). In 1642 the land east and south of "Mrs. Edloe's Swamp" was acquired by Cornelius de Hull. The creek on the north of his land, which feeds into the swamp, he named "Lilley Valley". Later the name was changed to "Cornelius Creek". This was the same land acquired in 1637 by William Coxe but the book "Cavaliers and Pioneers" does not record the acquisition by de Hull. On October 31, 1642 de Hull extended his land known as "Lilley Valley" by 502 acres beginning next to Mrs. Edloe's Swamp, near his own land and southeast upon John Davis and southwest to the river. Part of this land, 250 acres, was in the grant to William Coxe in 1637.

Upon the death of his mother, about 1665, John Coxe bought "Longfield", of 700 acres, on March 22, 1665, from John Davis and assigned it to John Burton, husband of Mary Coxe his sister, probably as her share of her mother's estate. Burton called the estate "Oldfield". However, many writers now refer to the Burton family of "Longfield". At the same time John Coxe acquired his 550 acre plantation at "Arrowhattocks". John Cox's new plantation and John Burton's "Oldfield" were separated by the 150 acres of land which Captain Mathew Edloe obtained in 1653.

John Burton (1632-1689) and his wife Mary (Coxe) Burton had seven children, among them Robert Coxe of "Longfields". Robert (1665-1724) married Mary, probably a Nowell, and had five children, one being named Hutchins Burton (1694-1763). Hutchins Burton married Susannah Allen and became the progenitor of numerous Hutchins Burtons, one a governor of North Carolina - long after the source of the name had been forgotten.

Although Simeon Oliver Coxe (1877-1955) did extensive research on the Coxe family of "Arrowhattocks" he is a descendant of William Coxe through John Burton who married Mary Coxe, daughter of William Coxe. His own Coxe paternal line is an entirely different family not associated with the James River Coxe.

THE MYSTERIES OF HUTCHINS ANTIQUITY

In the study of the Hutchins-Hutchings-Hutchens families several intriguing individuals have crossed the paths of known families but research to date has not been able to identify them and to account for their presents at the times and places recorded in historical documents. The following mysteries remain to be solved.

English Adventurers and Planters

During the period when Englishmen were engaged in exploring the New World for trade routes and planting company trading centers several English Hutchins gentry families were associated with various of these events. It is most probable that these Hutchins families were related, however, to date no relationship has been documented.

Stephen Hutchins of Plymouth and Saltash in Devonshire in the years 1562 and 1567 had claims against the Plymouth Corporation for moneys owed to Stephen, probably for some adventure in the New World. In 1628/29 when the Massachusetts Bay Company was chartered by the King a London merchant-taylor, Thomas Hutchins, was one of the twenty-six individuals who formed the new company. Thomas was one of the first associates or directors of the new company. He was not reelected an associate in 1629 when it was agreed to transfer the company headquarters to New England. It is therefore assumed that he did not move to the colony. In 1635 he appeared in court in England when the King charged the organizers of the company with deception for creating a company whose headquarters were outside of England and thus less able to be controlled by the Crown. It is now known if Thomas ever came to the Massachusetts Bay Colony.

When the charter was first signed by the King in 1628/29 copies of the document were made to be sent to John Endicott who was then in Salem, New England, as the governor of the new colony. The copies were signed on 17 May 1629 by George Hutchins who certified that they were accurate copies of the original. The relationship, if any, of George Hutchins to Thomas Hutchins has not been established.

The Hutchins name, as shown in court records, was often spelled in New England as Houchins, Houtchins, Houchin, etc. On 9 November 1653 Elizabeth Houchin, daughter of Jeremy Houchin of Boston, New England, married John Endecott, Jr., the son of the first governor of the Massachusetts Bay Colony. Jeremy was the son of a William Houchin probably the William Houchins who was noted in 1647 in Boston records as being an attorney. This William is probably the same William Hutchins who was listed in the 1638/39 will of his father Thomas Hutchins of Crewkerne, Somersetshire, Old England, to receive five pounds if he returned from New England.

No relationship is known between the various individuals mentioned above. Thomas Hutchins of London was the son of Thomas Hutchins of the city of Chester (Cheshire). In 1608 Thomas, Jr., was apprenticed to John Stockley, a Merchant-Taylor of London. John Hutchins a mercer (merchant) of Manchester signed the apprentice bond and was probably an uncle of

Thomas, Jr. A William Harrison of Fondardson(?) in the county of Lancaster also signed. Thomas Hutchins of London had a brother William Hutchins who died about 1647. William was a student and fellow of Brasenose College (Oxford) from 1603 to 1619. Later he was rector of the parish church at Gawsworth (Cheshire) from 1630 until ejected in 1643, as a result of the Civil War. In William's will of 1647 he mentions children (no names) of his uncle Edward Hutchins. It is assumed this Edward was the one born in 1558 who attended Brasenose College from 1576 to 1581. He was prebendary of Sarum (Wiltshire) in 1589 and died in 1629. Edward had a large family but the histories of these children have not been documented, however, some of them might have moved to the New World to supervise the family's interests.

Edward was probably related to a Randall Hutchins of county Denbigh (next to Cheshire) in Wales who attended Brasenose College and who also held a living in the Church.

Research is in progress to identify these various Hutchins and determine their relationship, if any, to the early Hutchins planters in the New World.

Sir George Hutchins of Devon

George Hutchins was baptized in Georgeham, Devon, England, on 16 August 1640 and died in Holborn, Middlesex, England, on 6 July 1705. He was the son of Edmund Hutchins the parish priest of Georgeham. Edmund was baptized in Ludgvan, Cornwall, in September 1605 the son of George Hutchins rector of Ludgvan. This George was probably baptized on 11 February 1564 the son of John Hutchins whose children were baptized in Wedmore, Somerset, England. George of Wedmore attended Trinity College, Oxford, where he received an MA on 24 November 1601.

George of Georgeham was knighted on 31 October 1689 by King William II and from 14 May 1690 to 22 March 1693 was third commissioner (Keeper) of the Great Seal of King William. As Keeper of the Great Seal in 1691 he sealed the second charter for the Massachusetts Colony.

Sir George had two sons but neither had issue and thus there are no known Hutchins descendants, although his great-granddaughter was the wife of Lord North, prime minister of England during the American Revolution. While Sir George was Keeper of the Great Seal a Captain John Hutchins was in New York City with a company of soldiers raised for duty in the colony. Later as an alderman of the city he had a continual feud with the Governor of New York and John sent several petitions to the King which resulted in favorable actions. It is assumed that in some manner he was related to Sir George. It is also probable that John was the progenitor of the large Hutchins-Pintard family of New Jersey which later moved into North Carolina and Mississippi.

Hutchins of Maryland

A history of the Hutchins of Baltimore and Harford counties in Maryland assumed that the family had its origin in Wood Burcote, Northampshire, Old England. However, the first records are of Thomas (1652-1732) in Baltimore County about 1680-1685. It is also assumed that the William Hutchins (165?-1722) in Baltimore County at the same time was his brother. At Thomas' death in 1732 his estate inventory showed sixteen pair of shoes, indicating that Thomas, in addition to farming, probably had a shoe business. It is of interest that on 10 June 1684 a William Hutchins merchant of London, England, sent John Lowdon, a shoemaker of Exeter, Devon, to Maryland as an indentured servant for five years.

There is no proof to support the assumption in the family history that Thomas and William were the sons of a John Hutchins of Virginia. In fact records show that William of Maryland was not the William of Lancaster County, Virginia, as indicated in the history. More over, court records show that Moses Hutchings a grandson of Thomas Hutchins of Baltimore County moved to Wake County, North Carolina, and raised a large family. Also, John Hutchins, a son of Thomas, also moved to Wake County and established one of the largest North Carolina Hutchins families.

There is a mystery about Thomas, the father of Moses of Wake County. According to the family history he died in Baltimore County and his estate was administered there in 1758. Before his death the family had sold property in Baltimore. In 1787 a notice was placed in the North Carolina Gazette stating it was assumed that Thomas Hutchins was then living in North Carolina and he should answer the notice to approve the old land sale, if he did not answer the sale would be adjudged to be legal. His son Moses replied and he again sold the property to remove any legal claim that might have existed. If Thomas' estate was administered in Baltimore County why was it assumed in 1787 that he was living in North Carolina?

Hutchins of Virginia

Christopher Hutchings was born about 1620 and first recorded in Orange County, Virginia, in 1741. He lived in that part of the county which in 1745 became Culpeper County. About 1772 he moved to Pittsylvania county where he died in 1807. Christopher had a large family which included sons Thomas, born about 1740 in Culpeper, John born about 1746, Moses born in 1754 and others. There was no known William in the family of Christopher.

In 1781 a William Hutchings was made an ensign of militia in Pittsylvania County, Virginia. This William would have to be twenty-one years of age so born before 1760. Many of Christopher's sons were officers in the Pittsylvania militia at that time but there is no known William born about 1760. Was he part of the William Hutchins (165?-1722) family of Baltimore County, Maryland, and maybe a relative who was in Pittsylvania for a short time? The William Hutchins, son of Robert Hutchins of Dinwiddie County, Virginia, was known to have a relationship to Pittsylvania County, but this William was born on the 6th of October 1770, thus in 1781 he would be only eleven years old.

Another large Virginia Hutchins family can be traced back to a Nicholas Hutchins of Henrico County, Virginia, who died in 1728/29. He had a son Strangeman Hutchins born in 1707 who died in Surry County, North Carolina, in 1792. The Henrico County court records for 5 May 1739 show an Abraham Childers, as guardian for the orphan Strange Hutchins. This Strange Hutchins has not been identified but it is assumed that he is part of this large Nicholas-Strangeman Hutchins family unit.
